CHAPTER 01. INTRODUCTION

RULE 1. OBJECTIVES

- 1.1 The offensive team's objective is to have its batter's become runners and its runners advance to home plate.
- 1.2 The defensive team's objective is to prevent players from becoming runners and to prevent their advancement around the bases.
- 1.3 When a batter becomes a runner and touches all bases legally, that individual shall score one run for his team.
Exception: A run does not score if a runner touches home plate while the third out is made.
- 1.4 The objective of each team is to win by scoring more runs than the opposing team.
- 1.5 The winner of the game is the team which has scored more runs in accordance with the rules at the end of the game.

RULE 2. EQUIPMENT

2.1 THE BAT

- 2.1.1 The bat shall be made of wood as it complies with the OBA (Ontario Baseball Association) Bat Rule Spec:
- 2.1.2 It shall be a smooth, rounded stick with a constant radius at any point.
- 2.1.3 There must be a direct line from the center of the knob to the center of the large end.
- 2.1.4 The knob and the end plug, if any, must be firmly attached.
- 2.1.5 The bat shall not be more than 42 inches (1.06m) of length.
- 2.1.6 The diameter of a bat shall not be more than 2 5/8 inches (0.06m) nor less than 2 1/4 inches (0.05m).
- 2.1.7 The bat handle may be covered or treated with any material or substance to improve the grip but must not exceed more than 18 inches (0.45m) from its end. Any such material or substance that exceeds the 18-inch (0.45m) limit shall be cause for the bat to be removed from the game.

Note: An illegal bat must be removed. Any bat that has been altered shall be removed from play.

If the Umpire discovers that the bat does not conform to Rule 2.1.7 above until a time or after which the bat has been used in play. It shall not be grounds for declaring the batter out or ejected from the game.

Penalty: If a batter entering the batter's box is discovered with an illegal bat or is discovered having used an illegal bat prior to the next player entering the batter's box. The plate Umpire must warn the manager of the offensive team in case it would be the first violation. At the second violation the manager of the team will be ejected from the game.

- 2.1.8 The players can only use one-piece wooden bats that are included in the official OBA/Baseball Canada approved wood bat list published in the current year.

- 2.1.9 Use of composite bats is allowed and are permitted to be used for play

2.2 PLAYERS UNIFORMS

- 2.2.1 The uniform of all participating players, coaches, and manager of the team shall be of the same color and style.
- 2.2.2 Each team can have two sets of uniform jerseys of contrasting colours. It is the responsibility of the visiting team to wear a contrasting uniform colour to the jersey worn by the home team. It is recommended that both teams wear the full pregame or regular game uniforms when entering the playing field.
- 2.2.3 All uniforms must have numbers on the back of the shirt, at least 6 inches (0.15 m) tall.
- 2.2.4 Except for the standard shoe plates or toe plates, no player shall attach anything to the sole or heel of the shoe. Shoes with pointed metal spikes, like golf or track shoes, shall not be allowed.
- 2.2.5 Polished metal or glass buttons are not allowed on a uniform. If a pitcher wears a helmet, it must have a non-glossy finish.
- 2.2.6 Any part of an undershirt exposed to view shall be of the same solid colour other than white. Sleeve length may vary for everyone, but players must wear sleeves approximately the same size (torn or ragged sleeves are not allowed). If worn by a pitcher, compression-type sleeves must be covered by an undershirt or worn on both arms.
- 2.2.7 A player or coach may wear a jacket under the uniform top if it is the same colour as the team's undershirts. Only a pitcher may wear a jacket as an outer garment while as a base runner. When worn, it is to be buttoned or zipped. A pitcher may wear a jacket under the uniform top while batting. No other player is permitted to wear a coat as the outer garment while serving as a base runner or a defensive player.
- 2.2.8 When coaching the bases, the uniform game jersey must be worn. If a team jacket or wind shirt is worn, it must include the team's official logo and be consistent with the team's uniform colour and apparel. If both coaches opt to wear a jacket, the jackets must be uniform. At all other times, coaches can wear a team-issued jacket or wind shirt.
- 2.2.9 No player whose uniform does not conform to that of his teammates shall be permitted to participate in a game.
- 2.2.10 No player shall attach tape or other material of a different colour to his uniform.

2.3 GLOVES

- 2.3.1 The catcher may wear a glove or mitt of any dimension.
- 2.3.2 The first baseman's glove or mitt must not be more than 13 inches (0.33m) long or 8 inches (0.2m) wide. The webbing shall not be constructed to form a net type of trap. The length measurement of any glove or mitt shall be from the bottom edge or heel straight up across the palm. The width measurement for the first baseman's mitt shall be from the centre of the case section between the thumb and the first finger to the outside edge of the little finger. The crotch area for the first baseman's mitt shall not exceed 5 inches (0.12m) in length, 4 ½ inches (0.11m) in width at the top and 3 ½ inches (0.08m) at the base.
- 2.3.3 Every player except the catcher and first baseman is restricted to the use of a fielder's glove not more than 13 inches (0.33m) long and not more than 8 inches (0.2m) wide. For the fielder's glove the measurement shall be from the base of the inside seam of the first finger to the outside edge of the little finger. These measurements shall not exceed 5 ¾ inches (0.14m) in width at the top and 3 ½ inches (0.08m) at the base.
- 2.3.4 The pitcher's glove may not be white or grey, exclusive of piping nor, in the judgement of the Umpire, be distracting in any way.
- 2.3.4.1 No pitcher shall attach to his glove any foreign material of a color different from the glove.
- 2.3.4.2 The Umpire shall remove from the game any glove that violates Rule 2.3.4, either on his own initiative or at the recommendation of another Umpire or upon complaint of the opposing manager that the Umpire agrees has merit.

2.4 PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

- 2.4.1 Double ear flap or Single ear flap helmets are mandatory for the hitter/batter and base runner, and it is also recommended that base coaches wear the skull caps. For catchers, including warm-up and bullpen catchers, wearing protective gear is required.

Note: The skull caps for coaches are not required, only recommended.

- 2.4.2 All catchers must wear a protective helmet and full-face mask while catching.
- 2.4.3 All bat/ball boys shall wear a double ear flap protective helmet. NO EXCEPTIONS

RULE 5. DEFINITION OF TERMS

5.1 APPEAL: The act of a manager, coach or player claiming a violation of the rules by the opposing team.

5.2 BALK: An illegal act by the pitcher with runners on base. Penalty is all runners advance one base.

5.3 BALL: A pitch that does not enter the strike zone in flight. If the pitch touches the ground and bounces through the strike zone it is a "ball".

5.4 BASE: One of four points that must be touched by a runner in order to score a run. More usually applied to the canvas bags except for the rubber home plate.

5.5 BASE COACH: A team member or a coach in uniform who is stationed in the coach's box at first and third.

5.6 BASE ON BALLS: Is an award of first base granted to the batter who while at bat receives four pitches outside the strike zone. Also awarded when the opposing manager signals to the home plate Umpire for an intentional walk.

5.7 BATTER: The offensive player positioned in the batter's box.

5.8 BATTER-RUNNER: A term that identifies the offensive player who has just finished his turn at bat and has either been put out or reached base safely before the play ends.

5.9 BATTER'S BOX: The area where the batter is positioned for his turn at bat.

- 5.10 BATTERY: The term used when referring to the pitcher and the catcher.
- 5.11 BENCH OR DUGOUT: The area reserved for each team personnel in proper uniform involved in the game.
- 5.12 BULLPEN: An area in foul territory or outside the playing field where substitute pitcher and catchers and other players warmup. Pitchers should warmup in the designated area not on the playing field or outside of dugout.
- 5.13 BUNT: A batted ball not swung at, but intentionally met with the bat and tapped slowly within the infield. If the attempt to bunt results in a foul ball that is not legally caught, it is a strike.
- 5.14 CALLED GAME: A game in which for any reason the Umpire in chief terminates play.
- 5.15 CATCH: A ball in flight, is caught, when a fielder has held the ball long enough to show complete control. If a fielder makes a catch but drops the ball when he is attempting a throw, it is still considered a catch. If the fielder ends up with secure possession of the ball even if it has been touched or juggled by another fielder as long as it has not touched a member of the offensive team, or Umpire. This is considered a catch. It is not a catch if the fielder is touching dead ball territory when he makes the catch.
- 5.16 CATCHER: The fielder who takes his defensive position back of home plate.
- 5.17 CATCHER'S BOX: It is the area where the catcher shall stand until the pitcher delivers the pitch.
- 5.18 COACH: A team member in uniform appointed by the manager to perform such duties as the manager may designate, such as but not limited to acting as a base coach.
- 5.19 DEAD BALL: A ball out of play. A dead ball stops the game, and no plays can happen or take place until the umpire resumes the game.
- 5.20 DEFENCE OR DEFENSE: The team or any player of the team on the field.
- 5.21 DESIGNATED HITTER: The designated hitter is a player who bats in place of the pitcher. The designated hitter does not play in the field. The designated hitter can also be the Pitcher/Designated Hitter (P/DH) and stay as a DH if removed from the mound. He can also stay as the pitcher if he is pinch hit for. See Rule 8.3
- 5.22 DISQUALIFIED PLAYER: A player who no longer is eligible to participate in the game but has not been ejected. For example, injured player, or substituted player.
- 5.23 DOUBLE PLAY: A play by the defence in which two offensive players are put out as a result of continuous action, providing there is no error between puouts.
- 5.23.1 A force double play is one in which both putouts are force plays.
- 5.23.2 A reverse double play is one in which the first put is a force play and the second out is made on a runner for whom the force is removed by reason of the first out.
- Example: Runner on first base, one out. Batter grounds to first baseman who steps on the bag (one out) and throws to second baseman or shortstop for the second out (tag play). loaded, no outs, Batter grounds to third baseman who steps on the bag (one out) then throws to catcher for the second out (tag play).
- 5.24 DOUBLE HEADER: Two regularly scheduled or rescheduled games, played in immediate succession.
- 5.25 EJECTION: The immediate removal of a player, manager, or team personnel from any further participation from the current game. The game officials have the authority to eject a player, manager, or team personnel for misconduct or unsportsmanlike action.

- 5.31 FLY BALL: A batted ball that goes high in the air directly off the bat.
- 5.32 FORCE PLAY: A play in which a runner legally loses the right to occupy a base by reason of the batter becoming a runner.
- Note: On a dropped third strike, when the batter is not entitled to run to first base, any advancing runner must be tagged to be declared out.
- 5.33 FORFEITED GAME: A game declared ended and awarded to the offended team by the Umpire in chief.
- 5.34 FOUL BALL: A foul ball is a legally batted ball that:
- 5.34.1 Settles on foul ground between home plate and first base or between home plate and third base.
- 5.34.2 Bounds past first or third base over foul ground.
- 5.34.3 First falls on foul ground beyond first or third base.
- 5.34.4 While on or over foul ground, touches an Umpire, a player, or any object other than the playing surface.
- 5.34.5 Hits the batter in the batter's box or hits the dirt or home plate and then hits the batter or the bat, which is in the hand or hands of the batter, while in the batter's box.
- 5.34.6 Hits the pitcher's rubber and rebounds into foul territory between home plate and first or third base, without touching a fielder.
- Note: A foul fly shall be judged according to the relative position of the ball and the foul line, including the foul pole, and not whether the fielder is on foul or fair territory at the time he touches the ball.
- 5.35 FOUL TERRITORY: That part of the playing field outside the first and third base lines extended to the fence and perpendicularly upwards.
- 5.36 FOUL TIP: A batted ball that goes sharp and directly from the bat to the catcher and is caught legally by the catcher. It is a strike, and the ball is in play.
- 5.37 GROUND BALL: A batted ball that rolls or bounces close to the ground.
- 5.38 HALF SWING: An attempt by the batter to stop the forward motion of the bat while swinging, which puts the batter in jeopardy of a strike being called. The half swing shall be called a strike if the barrel head of the bat passes the batter's front hip. This does not apply to a bunt attempt when the batter pulls the bat back.
- 5.39 HOME TEAM: The team on whose field the game is played. If the game is played on neutral grounds, the home team shall be determined by mutual agreement.
- 5.40 ILLEGAL: Anything contrary to these rules.
- 5.41 ILLEGAL BAT: A bat that has been tampered with in such a way to improve the distance factor or cause an unusual reaction on the baseball.
- 5.42 ILLEGAL PITCH: A pitch delivered to the batter without the pitcher's pivot foot in contact with the pitcher's rubber or the pitcher making a quick pitch. With runners on base, it is a balk.
- 5.43 ILLEGAL BATTED BALL: A ball hit by the batter with one or both feet on the ground and entirely outside the batter's box, or a ball hit with an illegal bat.
- 5.44 IN FLIGHT: Any batted, thrown, or pitched ball that has not touched the ground or some object other than a player.
- 5.45 INFIELD: That area within the 90-foot square (27.43 m²) bounded by home plate, first, second and third bases
- 5.46 INFIELD FLY: A fair fly ball (not including a line drive or an attempted bunt) which can be caught by an infielder with ordinary effort, when first and second, or first, second and third bases are occupied, before two are out. The pitcher, catcher or any outfielders who are in the infield on the said play, shall be considered infielders for the purpose of this rule.
- The ball is alive, and runners may advance at the risk of the ball being caught, or they can retouch and advance after the ball is touched, the same as on any fly ball. If the hit becomes a foul ball, it is treated the same as any foul. When it seems apparent that a batted ball will be an infield fly, the Umpire shall immediately declare "Infield Fly" for the benefit of the runners. If the ball is near the baselines, the Umpire shall declare "Infield Fly, If Fair." If a declared Infield Fly is allowed to fall untouched to the ground, and bounces foul before passing first or third base, it is a foul ball. If a declared Infield Fly falls untouched to the ground outside the baseline, and bounces fair before passing first or third base, it is an Infield Fly.
- COMMENT: If interference is called during an Infield Fly, the ball remains alive until it is determined whether the ball is fair or foul. If fair, both the runner who interfered with the fielder and the batter are out. If foul, even if caught, the runner is out, and the batter returns to bat.
- 5.47 INFIELDER: Fielders (usually four) who are positioned in the infield area.
- 5.48 INNING: That portion of a game within which the teams alternate on offence and defence and in which there are three putouts for each team. Each team's time at bat is a half-inning.
- 5.49 INTERFERENCE: An act that hinders or prevents a player from making a play. The following are the most prevalent:
- 5.49.1 Offensive Interference is an act by the team at bat which interferes with, impedes, hinders, or confuses any fielder attempting to make a play.

- 5.49.2 Defensive Interference is an act by a fielder (usually the catcher) that hinders or prevents a batter from hitting a pitch.
- 5.49.3 Umpire's Interference occurs when a plate Umpire hinders, impedes, or prevents a catcher's throw attempting to prevent a stolen base or retire a runner on a pick off play. Also, when a fair ball touches an Umpire in fair territory before passing a fielder, other than the pitcher.
- 5.49.4 Spectator Interference occurs when a spectator or an object thrown by a spectator, hinders a player's attempt to make a play on a live ball, by going onto the playing field, or reaching out of the stands and over the playing field.
- 5.50 LEGAL: Everything in accordance with these rules.
- 5.51 LIVE BALL: After the pitcher engages the rubber with possession of the ball and the batter has assumed his position in the batter's box, the Umpire calls, or signals "Play".
- 5.52 LINE DRIVE: A batted ball that goes sharp and direct from the bat to a fielder without touching the ground.
- 5.53 MANAGER: The manager is a person appointed by the team to be responsible for the team's actions on the field, and to represent the team in communications with the Umpire and the opposing team.
- 5.54 MISCONDUCT: It is any act of dishonesty, unsportsmanlike conduct or unprofessional behaviour that discredits the game.
- 5.55 OBSTRUCTION: Is the act of a fielder who, while not in possession of the ball and not in the act of fielding the ball, impedes the progress of any runner. See specific rule sections for action to be taken.
- 5.56 OFFENCE OR OFFENSE: The team at bat.
- 5.57 ORDINARY EFFORT: Is the effort that a fielder of average skill at a position in that league or classification should exhibit on a play, with consideration given to the condition of the field and weather conditions.
- 5.58 OUT: A declaration by the Umpire that a player who is trying for a base is not entitled to that base.
- 5.59 OUTFIELDER: Fielders (usually three) who occupy positions most distant from home plate between the infielder and the outfield fence.
- 5.60 OVERSLIDE: Is the act of an offensive player when his slide to a base, other than when advancing from home to first base, is with such momentum that he loses contact with the base.
- 5.61 PICKOFF: When a pitcher or catcher throws to a base between pitches in an attempt to retire a runner who is either leading off or about to begin stealing the next base, or to keep a runner close to the base.
- 5.62 PINCH HITTER: An eligible substitute player who is not listed in the line-up and bats for a player listed in the line-up.
- 5.63 PINCH RUNNER: An eligible substitute player who is not listed in the line-up and runs for a player listed in the line-up.
- 5.64 PITCH: The ball delivered by the pitcher to the batter while in contact with the pitcher's rubber.
- 5.65 PITCHER: The fielder designated to deliver the pitch to the batter.
- 5.66 PITCHER'S PIVOT FOOT: The foot in contact with the pitching rubber when the pitcher is in the act of delivering the ball.
- Note: For a right-handed pitcher the right foot is the pivot foot. For a left-handed pitcher the left foot is the pivot foot. Some portion of the pitcher's pivot foot must be in contact with the pitching rubber for the pitch to be legal.
- 5.67 PLAY: The order given by the Umpire to begin the game or resume play.
- 5.68 QUICK PITCH: An illegal pitch made with the obvious intent to catch the batter off balance.
- 5.69 RETOUCH: Is the act of a runner in returning to a base a legally required.
- 5.70 RUN: Is the score made by an offensive player who advances from batter to runner and touches first, second, third and home plate in that order.
- 5.71 If a team is losing by fourteen (14) or more runs after having batted at least in five (5) innings the game is ended at that point. –
During the Regular Season Game Only
- 5.72 RUN DOWN: The act of the defence in an attempt to put out a runner between bases.
- 5.73 RUNNER: An offensive player who is advancing to, returning to, or touching a base.
- 5.74 SAFE: Is a declaration by the Umpire that a runner is entitled to the base for which he is trying.
- 5.75 SET POSITION: Is one of the two legal pitching positions. Usually used with runners on base.

Note: With a runner or runners on base, a pitcher will be presumed to be pitching from the set position if he stands with his pivot foot in contact with and parallel to the pitcher's plate, and his other foot in front of the pitcher's plate, unless he notifies the Umpire that he will be pitching from the windup position under such circumstances prior to the beginning of an at bat. A pitcher will be permitted to notify the Umpire that he is pitching from the windup position within an at bat only in the following events:

A: A Substitution by the offensive team.

B: Immediately upon the advancement of one or more runners. For example, after one or more base runners advance but before the delivery of the next pitch.

5.76 SQUEEZE PLAY: A play whereby a team, with a runner on third base, attempts to score that runner by means of a bunt.

5.77 STRIKE: A legal pitch when called by the Umpire. A strike is:

5.77.1 A legal pitch struck at by the batter without the ball touching the bat.

5.77.2 A legal pitch that enters the strike zone (See Appendix 4 for the diagram) in flight and is not struck at.

Note: The plate Umpire should determine if the pitch is a strike in relationship to the batter's normal position as the pitch crosses home plate. Any part of the ball passing over any part of the plate, from the bottom of the kneecaps to the midpoint between the top of the shoulders and the top of the uniform pants, is a strike. The pitch should be judged to be a strike or a ball as it crosses home plate, not where it is caught by the catcher.

If a pitched ball strikes the ground in front of the batter and the batter swings at it, the ball is in play if hit and a strike if missed.

5.77.3 A legal pitch that becomes a foul not caught on the fly when the batter has fewer than two strikes.

5.77.4 An attempt to bunt the ball that results in a foul not legally caught.

5.77.5 A legal pitch that is in the strike zone and that touches the batter, regardless of whether he swings or not (the ball is immediately dead, the pitch is a strike, no runner may advance, and the batter is not awarded First base).

5.77.6 Foul tip.

5.77.7 After the offensive warning and the batter fails to take a position in the batter's box immediately after ordered by the Umpire and the 20 second limit expires.

5.77.8 Awarded if the batter deliberately steps back in the box or swings in such a manner to attempt to create catcher's interference. If the swing hits the catcher or the mitt, the batter will be called out. All base runners shall return to the base occupied at the time of the pitch.

5.78 STRIKE ZONE: The area over home plate from the bottom of the kneecaps to the midpoint between the top of the shoulders and the top of the uniform pants. The strike zone shall be determined from the batter's stance as the batter is prepared to swing at a pitched ball.

5.79 SUBSTITUE: A substitute is an eligible roster player who is not one of the players listed on the line-up card and has not been withdrawn or disqualified.

5.80 SUSPENDED GAME: A game that is stopped because of weather, curfew, or other reason. To be completed at a later date.

5.81 TAG: A tag is the action of a fielder in touching a base with his body while holding the ball, or with his hand or glove, or touching a runner with the ball, or with his hand or glove holding the ball (not including hanging laces alone), while holding the securely and firmly in his hand or glove. It is not a tag, however, if simultaneously or immediately following his touching a base or touching a runner, the fielder drops the ball. In establishing the validity of the tag, the fielder shall hold the ball long enough to prove that he has complete control of the ball. If the fielder has made a tag and tag and drops the ball while in the act of making a throw following the tag, the tag shall be adjudged to have been made.

5.82 THROW: A throw is the act of propelling the ball with the hand and arm to a given objective and is to be distinguished, always, from the pitch.

5.83 TIE GAME: Is a regulation game which is called when each team has the same number of runs.

5.84 TIME: The interruption of play by any Umpire, calling or signalling the ball dead.

5.85 TIME OF PITCH: The time of pitch shall be determined when:

5.85.1 In the windup position, when the pitcher makes any movement connected with the delivery to the plate.

5.85.2 In the set position, when the pitcher begins his neutral movement associated with the pitcher's delivery of the ball after the pitcher has come set with both hands together in front of his body.

5.86 TOUCH: To touch a player or Umpire is to touch any part of his body, or any uniform or equipment worn by him, but not any jewellery, worn by a player.

5.87 TRIPLE PLAY: A continuous play by the defence in which three players are put out without an error between the puouts.

5.88 WILD PITCH: Is one so high, so low, or so wide of the plate that it cannot be handled with ordinary effort by the catcher.

5.89 WINDUP: One of two legal pitching positions, usually made with no runners on base.

CHAPTER 03.

BASEBALL RULES

RULE 6. GAME: BEGINNING AND ENDING

The game begins when all the defensive players have taken their defensive positions on the field. The first batter of the offensive team shall take his position in the batter's box, the Umpire in chief shall call "PLAY."

The ball is alive and in play and remains alive until the Umpire calls "Time" or the ball becomes dead.

6.1 STARTING THE GAME

The game begins when the home plate Umpire (chief Umpire) calls "Play." After the Umpire calls "Play" the ball is alive and in play.

6.2 POSITIONS OF THE OFFENSIVE TEAM

The offensive team shall:

6.2.1 Follow the batting order submitted by the manager, throughout the game unless a player is substituted for another.

6.2.2 The first batter in each inning after the first inning shall be the player whose name follows that of the last player who legally completed his turn at bat in the previous inning.

6.3 TEAM OFFENSIVE INTERFERENCE

If there is interference with a live ball (thrown or batted) by anyone other than players, coaches or Umpires, the Umpires shall rule as to whether the act is intentional or unintentional.

6.3.1 If it is intentional, the ball is declared dead immediately when it is interfered with, and the Umpire shall award the offended team appropriately that in his opinion would have resulted had the interference not taken place.

6.3.1.1 It is intentional if a coach, player, bat person, photographer, or other home field person fields, kicks or pushes a ball, regardless of motive.

6.3.1.2 The Umpire shall declare intentional interference and take any action required to rectify the interference, whether it is an out, extra bases, if a spectator intentionally reaches out of the stands or goes onto the playing field. The ball is dead immediately.

6.3.1.3 If it is unintentional interference, the ball remains alive and in play. It is unintentional interference if a base coach, bat person, photographer or any other field attendant tries to evade the ball and it touches that individual or if it touches that person without that person being aware the ball was coming.

6.3.1.4 It is not interference if the player is going outside the playing field during a play, and the spectator interferes with a possible catch in the stands or over a fence.

6.4 BASE COACHES

6.4.1 The team at bat shall station two base coaches in uniform on the field during its time at bat who occupies the coach's box at first or third base to direct the batter or runner.

6.4.2 Base coaches must remain within the coach's box. At the time of the pitch, the base coach may not be closer to the foul line than the inside edge of the coaches' box and no closer to home plate than the front edge of the box. A coach may leave the coach's box to signal the player to slide or advance or return to a base as long as the individual does not interfere with the play.

Penalty: Upon complaint by the opposing manager, the Umpire shall strictly enforce the rule. The shall warn the coach and instruct him to return to the box. If the coach does not return to the box, they shall be removed from the game.

6.5 POSITIONS OF THE DEFENSIVE TEAM

At the start of or during a game, all defensive players except the catcher must be in fair territory when the ball is put in play.

6.5.1 The catcher must stand with both feet within the lines of the catcher's box until the pitcher releases the ball.

Penalty: Balk. All runners awarded one base.

6.5.2 The pitcher must be in a legal position while delivering the ball to the batter.

6.5.3 Any fielder may position himself anywhere in fair territory, except the pitcher and the catcher.

6.6 SUBSTITUTIONS

6.6.1 Each team shall always have nine eligible players in the game.

6.6.2 Any pitcher named may be replaced after the first opposing batter (or the batter's substitute) has been put out or has advanced to first base or the side has been retired. In case of injury or illness, a pitcher may be replaced immediately. If the pitcher is replaced, the substitute pitcher shall pitch to the batter then at bat, or any substitute batter, until such batter is put out or reaches first base, or until the offensive team is put out, unless the substitute pitcher sustains injury or illness which, in the Umpire-in-chief's judgment, incapacitates him for further play as a pitcher.

Note: When a pitcher is removed as a pitcher but remains in the game, the pitcher will not be allowed to assume a position other than a pitcher more than once in the same inning. A substitute becomes a player when he has been reported to the Umpire-in-chief and the new player is written into the Umpire-in-chief's line-up card. If a pitcher is brought into the game but has not faced one batter (or retired the side) when the game is stopped for weather, such pitcher may, but is not required to, continue pitching when the game is resumed. No player removed for a substitute before the suspension of play may return to the line-up when the game is resumed.

6.6.3 Any player other than the pitcher or designated hitter may be substituted for at any time when the ball is dead, and the substituted player must take the place of the replaced player in the team's batting order.

Note: If the pitcher is removed from the game as a pitcher but will remain in the game and bat for the DH, that change must be announced at the time the pitcher is removed.

6.6.4 The designated hitter may enter the game on defence once but must bat in the original position in the line-up. The pitcher must then bat in the position vacated by the player leaving the game. See Designated Hitter Rule 9.3.

6.6.5 If two or more substitute players of the defensive team enter the game simultaneously, to avoid any confusion the manager immediately shall designate to the Umpire-in-chief the position of each in the team's batting order. If this is not done immediately, the Umpire shall place them in the batting order.

Note: When the pitcher is not the designated hitter, moving the pitcher to a defensive position and bringing in only one new substitute player does not constitute multiple substitutions for the purpose of batting-order changes. The pitcher moved to the defensive position must bat in the spot of the defensive player replaced and the new pitcher must bat in the DH position. If a double switch is being made, the manager or coach shall first notify the plate Umpire. The Umpire-in-chief must be informed of the multiple substitutions and interchanged batting order before the manager calls for a new pitcher (regardless of whether the manager or coach announces the double-switch before crossing the foul line). Signalling or motioning to the bullpen is to be considered an official substitution for the new pitcher. It is not permissible for the manager to go to the mound, call for a new pitcher, and then inform the Umpire of multiple substitutions with the intention of interchanging the batting order.

6.6.6 A base runner shall not be replaced by another player whose name appears or has appeared in the batting order for that game.

Note: This rule is intended to eliminate the practice of using so-called courtesy runners. No player in the game shall be permitted to act as a courtesy runner for a teammate. No player who has been in the game and has been taken out for a substitute shall return as a courtesy runner. Any player not in the line-up, if used as a runner, shall be considered as a substitute player.

6.6.7 After having been notified or confirmed by the manager or another coach in uniform of the team making the substitution, the Umpire shall record any substitutions on the line-up card and then announce immediately or cause to be announced any substitutions. Should there be no announcement of substitution, the substitute becomes a legal player

When:

6.6.7.1 A runner takes the place of another base runner.

6.6.7.2 A pitcher engages the pitcher's rubber.

6.6.7.3 A fielder reaches the position usually occupied by the fielder being replaced and play commences; or

6.6.7.4 A batter enters the batter's box.

Note: Any play made by, or on, any of the above-mentioned unreported substitutes shall be legal. There is no penalty.

- 6.6.8 If a player substitutes for an injured teammate, other than the pitcher, the individual shall be allowed five warmup throws
- 6.6.9 A withdrawn player may sit on the bench, warm up pitchers, and act as a base coach. If a substitute enters the game in place of a player-manager, the manager may thereafter go to the coaching lines at his discretion.
- 6.6.10 A player once removed from a game shall not re-enter that game. If a player who has been substituted for attempts to re-enter, or re-enters, the game in any capacity, the Umpire-in-chief shall direct the player's manager to remove such player from the game immediately upon noticing the player's presence or upon being informed of the player's improper by another Umpire or by either manager. If such direction to remove the substituted-for player occurs before play commences with the player improperly in the game, then the substitute player may enter the game. If such direction to remove the substituted-for player occurs after play has commenced with the substituted-for player in the game, then the substitute player shall be deemed to have been removed from the game (in addition to the removal of the substituted-for player) and shall not enter the game.
- Note: Any play that occurs while a player appears in a game after having been substituted for shall count. If, in an Umpire's judgment, the player re-entered the game knowing that he had been removed, the Umpire may eject the manager.

6.7 REGULATION GAME

- 6.7.1 A regulation game consists of seven (7) innings in the regular season or nine (9) innings in the playoff final game.
- 6.7.1.1 Because the home team does not need its half of the seventh inning or only a fraction of it.
- 6.7.1.2 Because the Umpire in chief calls the game.
- 6.7.2 If the score is tied after seven (7) or nine (9) innings play shall continue until:
- 6.7.2.1 The visiting team has scored more total runs than the home team at the end of a completed inning.
- 6.7.2.2 The home team scores the winning run in an uncompleted inning.
- 6.7.3 If a game is called, it is a regulation game:
- 6.7.3.1 If four (4) innings for seven (7) innings-game and five (5) innings for nine (9) inning-game have been completed.
- 6.7.3.2 If the home team has scored more runs in four or four and a fraction half innings than the visiting team has scored in five completed half-innings.
- 6.7.3.3 If the home team scores one or more runs in its half of the fifth inning to tie the score.
- 6.7.4 If a regulation game is called with the score tied, it shall become a suspended game.
- 6.7.5 If a game is postponed or otherwise called before it has become a regulation game, the Umpire-in-chief shall declare it "No Game," unless the game is called pursuant to Rule 6.7, which shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts
- 6.7.6 The score of a regulation game is the total number of runs scored by each team at the moment the game ends.
- 6.7.6.1 The game ends when the visiting completes its half of the seventh inning if the home team is ahead.
- 6.7.6.2 The game ends when the seventh inning is completed if the visiting team is ahead.
- 6.7.6.3 If the home team scores the winning run in its half of the seventh inning (or its half of an extra inning after a tie), the game ends immediately when the winning run is scored.
- 6.7.7 A called game ends at the moment the Umpire terminates play, unless it becomes a suspended game pursuant to Rule 6.7.

6.8 HALTED GAME (SUSPENDED, POSTPONED, AND TIE GAMES)

- 6.8.1 A game shall become a suspended game that must be completed at a future date if the game is terminated for any of the following reasons:
- 6.8.1.1 A curfew imposed by law.
- 6.8.1.2 A time limit permissible under KCBSA/MLBL Rule.
- 6.8.1.3 Light failure, malfunction of, or unintentional operator error in, a mechanical or field device or equipment under the control by the City.(e.g., a tarpaulin, or water sprinklers).
- 6.8.1.4 Darkness, when a law prevents the lights from being turned on.
- 6.8.1.5 Weather, if a regulation game is called while an inning is in progress and before the inning is completed, and the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not retaken the lead.
- 6.8.1.6 It is a regulation game that is called with the score tied.

6.8.1.7 The game has not become a regulation game (4 ½ innings with the home team ahead, or 5 innings with the visiting team ahead or tied).

No game called because of a curfew, weather, a time limit, or with a tied score shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game.

6.8.2 A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The line-up and batting order of both teams shall be the same as the line-up and batting order at the moment of suspension. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the line-up.

6.9 TIE GAME

A regulation tie game shall be declared by the umpire-in-chief:

6.9.1 If the score is tied when play is terminated after five or more equal innings.

6.9.2 If the team that went to bat second is at bat when play is terminated and has scored during the uncompleted inning the same number of runs as the other team.

Any regulation game called by the Umpire with the score tied shall be declared a “tie” game.

Note: All individual and team averages from a tie game shall be incorporated into the official playing record.

6.10 NO GAME

The Umpire shall declare “No Game” if play is terminated before five innings have been completed.

Exception: If the home team is at bat in the bottom of the fifth inning and ties the game before the completion of that inning, the Umpire shall declare the game legally tied.

If the home team has scored more runs or is leading after four and a half innings, the Umpire shall award the game to the home team and it will be counted as a legal game.

6.11 FORFEITED GAME – PENALTY FEE from $250.00 non-refundable deposit to be deducted

A game shall be forfeited only as a last resort in favour of the team not at fault in the following cases:

6.11.1 If a team refuses to take the field within five minutes after the Umpire has called “Play”, unless the delay is unavoidable.

6.11.2 If, after the game has started, one team refuses to play.

6.11.3 If a team employs manoeuvres or methods to delay or shorten the game obviously.

6.11.4 After the Umpire has warned a team, that team willfully continues to violate game rules.

6.11.5 A team fails to obey within a reasonable time the Umpire’s order for the removal of a player from the game.

6.11.6 A game shall be forfeited to the opposing team when a team is unable or refuses to put eight players on the field.

6.11.7 If both teams are equally at fault and the situation is so out of control that the game cannot be safely continued, or if neither team has enough players available to continue the game, a double forfeit will be declared.

6.12 PROTESTED GAME

For regular season games, each team should adopt a procedure for protesting a game when a manager claims that an Umpire’s decision is in violation of these rules. No protest shall be permitted on a judgement call by an Umpire.

6.12.1 Any protest by the manager of a team must be made at the time of the play that caused the protest and before any play is resumed. If the game ends in a protestable decision, the offended team has until all infielders have left fair territory and the catcher has cleared the dirt circle to voice its protest intentions. All protests must be made to the Umpire-in-chief.

6.12.2 When a manager claims that an Umpire’s decision violated KCBSA/MLBL rules, the Umpire-in-chief must allow the manager the right to file a protest, announce to each manager, to the Official Scorekeeper and Commissioner that the game is being played under protest. Lastly, the Umpire must record the game situation during the protest.

6.12.3 No part of the game will be allowed to be replayed, even if the protest is upheld, if the play in question did not affect the outcome of the game.

6.12.4 If the protest is upheld and could have had a bearing on the outcome of the game, then the game is replayed from the point of the protest.

6.12.5 Once a manager is ejected, the may not protest a game situation. If a protest is to be lodged, it must be done by the substitute for the manager.

Example: With one out and runners on second and third bases, the batter hits a fair fly ball that was caught. The runner on third tagged up after the catch but the player on second did not. The runner on third had crossed home plate before the ball was played at second base for the third out. The Umpire did not allow the run to score. The question whether the runners left their bases before the catch and whether the play at second base was made before the player on third crossed home plate are solely matters of judgement and may not be protested.

6.13 FIGHT RULE

The KCBSA/MLBL has no tolerance for physical abuse or fighting at Baseball Games. The KCBSA/MLBL fight rule penalises any team members (players, coaches, manager, or team personnel), for fighting whether it is before, during or after a game has been played. The team manager and its coaches must know that they are responsible for the actions of their players.

The penalties for this rule will be enforced by the KCBSA/MLBL Board of Committee and League Commissioner in consultation with team manager and Umpire-in-chief. Suspended players, coaches, manager, or any team personnel, will be prohibited from any communication or contact, direct or indirect, with the team, coaches, manager, or bench personnel from the start of the game to the completion of the game, including all extra innings.

6.13.1 Fighting – Any physical abuse of an opponent, including attempting to strike with the arms, hands, legs, feet, or any equipment in a combative manner or intentionally spitting at an opponent.

6.13.2 Physical abuse of Game Officials or Umpires – Any threat of physical intimidation or harm to include pushing, shoving, contact, kicking dirt on an Umpire or Scorekeeper and League Commissioner, spitting, spraying, throwing at or attempting to make physical contact.

6.13.3 Team personnel leaving position – Any team personnel leaving their position to potentially participate in a verbal or physical confrontation or a fight shall include players, coaches, managers, and team personnel. The position is determined by where the individual is located at the time a confrontation takes place. For example, dugout, bullpen, coaching box, on base, at bat, or a defensive position.

Penalty: These are considered a KCBSA/MLBL “A” Level infractions. Fighting is subject to a suspension of a minimum of 3 games and up to two (seasons) years, and a minimum penalty of $2500.00 CAD.

Note: If a bench-clearing fight develops, Umpires should stay clear and let coaches, managers, and other players break up the fight. Umpires should attempt to identify all offenders and consult with their crew as to what action they Deem necessary.

RULE 7. BALL IN PLAY

7.1 LIVE BALL

The ball is alive and in play after the Umpire calls “Play.” The ball is alive and in play until for legal cause, or at the Umpires call of “Time” suspending play, the ball becomes dead. While the ball is dead, no player may be put out, no bases may be run and no runs may be scored, except that runners may advance one or more bases as the result of acts that occurred while the ball was alive (such as, but not limited to, a balk, an overthrow, interference, a home run, or other fair hit out of the playing field).

Note: Umpires must not permit the unnecessary calling of “Time” by players and coaches when it is an obvious tactic to delay the game. The Umpire shall not call time until a play has been completed.

7.1.1 If a thrown ball accidentally strikes a coach in foul territory, or a pitched or thrown ball strikes an Umpire, the ball remains in play.

7.2 IMMEDIATE DEAD BALL – RUNNERS RETURN

The ball becomes dead and base runners return when:

7.2.1 A foul ball is hit that is not caught. Runners return and the Umpire shall not put the ball in play until all runners have retouched their bases.

7.2.2 A ball is illegally batted.

7.2.3 A coach intentionally interferes with a thrown ball.

7.2.4 If a batter swings and misses a pitch and carries the bat all the way around and, in the Umpire’s judgement, unintentionally hits the catcher or the ball behind him on the backswing, it shall be called a strike only (not interference). The ball is dead, and no runner shall advance on the play.

7.2.4.1 If the follow-through hits the catcher and occurs in a situation where the batter normally would become a runner because of a third strike not held by the catcher, the ball shall be dead, and the batter declared out. No runner may advance.

7.2.4.2 If the catcher is in the act of making a throw to retire a runner and the batter is in the batter’s box and his normal follow-through unintentionally strikes the catcher or the ball while the catcher is in the act of throwing, “Time” is called, and runners return (unless the catcher’s initial throw directly retires the runner).

7.2.5 A fair ball touches a runner in fair territory before touching any infielder including the pitcher or an Umpire and before passing an infielder (other than the pitcher) who has a chance to make a play on the ball. The runner who is touched by the fair ball is out, and no other runner may advance or score, except when forced.

Note: If a fair ball goes through or by an infielder and touches a runner immediately in back of him or touches the runner after having been deflected by any fielder including the pitcher, the Umpire shall not declare the runner out for being touched by a batted ball. This refers to a ball that passes through the infielder's legs, or by his immediate vicinity, and strikes the runner directly behind the infielder. In making such a decision, the Umpire must be convinced that the ball passed through, or by, the infielder and that no other infielder had a chance to make a play on the ball.

Penalty: The ball is dead, and the runner hit by the batted ball is declared out. The batter is awarded first base with a single. Remaining runners advance if forced.

7.2.6 A fair ball touches an Umpire before touching a fielder and before passing a fielder other than the pitcher.

Penalty: The ball is dead, and the batter is awarded first base with a single. Runners advance if forced.

Note: If a fair ball touches an Umpire after having passed a fielder other than the pitcher, or having been touched by a fielder, including the pitcher, the ball is in play.

7.2.7 Interference is called on another runner.

Note: If the Umpire declares the batter, batter-runner or a runner out for offensive interference, all other runners shall return to the last base that was legally attained at the time of the interference.

7.2.8 If any runner intentionally interferes with a batted or thrown ball with a helmet or other personal equipment, the ball is dead, the runner is out, and any runner in advance of the interference shall return to the base last occupied at the time of interference. The batter-runner is awarded first base.

7.2.9 If a fielder reaches into a dugout, bullpen or dead ball area to catch a foul fly ball and an opponent interferes with the attempted catch, the batter shall be declared out and no runners shall advance.

7.3 DELAYED DEAD BALL – RUNNERS RETURN OR ADVANCE

The ball becomes dead, and runners advance one base or return to their bases without the liability to be put out when:

7.3.1 The plate Umpire interferes with the catcher's throw attempting to prevent a stolen base or retire a runner on a pick off play, runners may not advance.

Note: The interference is disregarded if the catcher's throw retires the runner.

7.3.2 The batter interferes with the catcher's fielding or throwing by stepping out of the batter's box or making any other movement that hinders the catcher's play at home base.

Penalty: Batter is out. Unless the runner attempting to advance is put out, or if runner trying to score is called out for batter's interference.

7.4 IMMEDIATE DEAD BALL – RUNNERS ADVANCE

The ball becomes dead and base runners advance one base without liability to be put out when:

7.4.1 A legal pitch hits a runner trying to score.

Exception: Any legal pitch hits a runner trying to score, immediate dead ball, base runners advance if they were stealing with the pitch. If they were not stealing, all base runners remain at the base they occupied at the time of the pitch.

7.4.2 A pitched ball touches a batter or any part of his clothing while in the legal batting position. Runners if forced advance. This does not include any jewellery.

7.4.3 A spectator or any other individual intentionally interferes with any thrown or batted ball. The ball is dead at the moment of interference and the Umpire shall impose penalties as to nullify that act of interference.

7.4.4 A pitched ball lodges in the Umpire or catcher's equipment other than the catcher's glove and remains out of play, or goes over, through or wedges in the field padding or fence.

7.4.5 When a fielder, after making a legal catch, steps or falls into any out of play area. Ball is dead and all other runners advance one base from their last legally occupied base at the time the fielder entered out of play area.

7.5 CALLING TIME AND DEAD BALLS

7.5.1 When an Umpire suspends play, he shall call "Time." At the Umpire in chief's call of "Play," the suspension is lifted and play resumes. Between the call of "Time" and the call of "Play" the ball is dead.

7.5.2 The ball becomes dead when an Umpire calls "Time." The Umpire in chief shall call "Time".

7.5.2.1 When in his judgement weather, darkness or similar conditions make immediate further play impossible.

- 7.5.2.2 When light failure makes it difficult or impossible for the Umpires to follow the play.
- 7.5.2.3 When an accident incapacitates a player or an Umpire.
- 7.5.2.4 If an accident to a runner is such to prevent him from proceeding to a base to which he is entitled, as on a home run hit out of the playing field, or an award of one or more bases, a substitute runner shall be permitted to complete the play.
- 7.5.2.5 When a manager requests "Time" for a substitution, or for a conference with one of his players.
- 7.5.2.6 When an Umpire wishes to examine the ball, to consult with either manager, or for any similar reason.
- 7.5.2.7 When a fielder, after catching a fly ball, steps or falls into any out of play area. All other runners shall advance one base, without liability to be put out, from his last legally occupied base at the time the fielder entered such out of play area.
- 7.5.2.8 When an Umpire orders a player or any other person removed from the playing field.
- 7.5.2.9 Except in the case stated in Rules 8.5.2.2 and 8.5.2.3, no Umpire shall call "Time" while a play is in progress.
- 7.5.2.10 A player or Umpire is injured. If injury occurs during a live ball, time shall not be called until no further advance or putout is possible. If a player is injured and cannot proceed to the awarded base, a substitute runner may be used to complete the play.
- 7.5.2.11 An unusual circumstance interferes with the normal progress of the game. Such as, spectators running on the field, animal, ball, or other object on the field.

After the ball is dead, play shall be resumed when the pitcher takes his place on the pitcher's plate with a new ball or the same ball in his possession and the plate Umpire calls "Play." The plate Umpire shall call "Play" as soon as the pitcher takes his place on the rubber with the ball in his possession.

7.6 UNSPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT

No Manager, player, coach, or team personnel shall at any time:

- 7.6.1 Incite or attempt to incite, by word, sign or actions that dispute an Umpire's decision and potentially incites a demonstration by spectators.
- 7.6.2 Call "Time" or employ any other words or phrase or commit any act while the ball is in play for the purpose of trying to make the pitcher commit a balk.
- Penalty: The offender will be removed from the game and will leave playing field. If a balk is committed, it will be disregarded.
- 7.6.3 Use language which will in any manner refer to or reflect upon opposing players, an Umpire, or any spectator.
- 7.6.4 Make intentional contact with any Umpire in any manner.
- 7.6.5 Take a position in the batter's line of vision, and with deliberate intent act in a manner to distract the batter.

RULE 8. BATTING

8.1 BATTING ORDER

- 8.1.1 Each player of the side at bat shall become a batter and must take a position within the batter's box in the order that the name appears in the team's batting order.
- 8.1.2 The batting order will be followed throughout the game unless a player is substituted for another. In that case the substitute will take the place of the replaced player in the batting order.
- 8.1.3 The first batter in each inning after the first inning will be the player whose name follows that of the last player who legally completed his time at bat in the preceding inning.

8.2 A BATTER

An offensive player who enters the batter's box with the intention of aiding their team to score runs. They continue to be a batter until they are declared out by the Umpire or become a batter runner.

8.3 DESIGNATED HITTER

The designated hitter (DH) is a player designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers.

Basic principles:

8.3.1 A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A DH for the pitcher, if any, must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the starting line-up cards presented to the Umpire-in-chief. If a manager lists 10 players in the team's line-up card, but fails to indicate one as the DH, and an Umpire or either manager (or designee of either manager who presents the team's line-up card) notices the error, the Umpire-in-chief shall direct the manager who had made the omission to designate which of the nine players, other than the pitcher, will be the DH. It is important for the Umpire-in-chief and representatives from both teams verify that the line-ups presented at the pregame meeting are correct.

8.3.2 The DH named in the starting line-up must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing team changes pitchers or the DH becomes ill or injured before the player's spot in the line-up comes to bat.

8.3.3 It is not mandatory that a team designate a hitter for the pitcher. If the starting pitcher is listed in the batting order, the pitcher automatically becomes the DH. In this case, the pitcher is to be considered as two players, both the pitcher and DH (P/DH) and can be substituted for as such

8.3.4 Pinch-hitters for a DH may be used. Any substitute hitter for a DH becomes the DH. A replaced DH (including a P/DH who has been replaced as DH) shall not re-enter the game in any other capacity.

8.3.5 The DH may be used on defence, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

8.3.6 A runner may be substituted for the DH and the runner assumes the role of DH. A DH may not pinch-run.

8.3.7 A DH is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting order of the DH.

8.3.8 Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a position on defence, such a move will terminate the DH role for that team for the remainder of that game.

8.3.9 Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, such a move will terminate the DH role for that team for the remainder of the game.

8.3.10 The game pitcher may pinch-hit or pinch-run only for the DH and become the P/DH.

8.3.11 If a manager lists 10 players in his team's line-up card, but fails to indicate one as the DH and the opposing manager brings the failure to list a DH to the attention of the umpire-in-chief after the game starts, then:

8.3.11.1 The listed player who has not assumed a position on defence is the DH, if the team has taken the field on defence; or

8.3.11.2 If the team has not yet taken the field on defence, the manager of that team shall indicate which player should have been listed as the DH.

8.3.12 Once a DH assumes a position on defence other than pitcher (i.e., becoming the P/DH), such move will terminate the DH role for that team for the remainder of that game.

8.3.13 A substitute for the DH need not be announced until it is the DH's turn to bat.

8.3.14 If a player on defence goes to the mound (i.e., replaces the pitcher), this move will terminate the DH's role for that team for the remainder of the game. The DH may assume the defensive player's position in the field.

Note: When the P/DH is replaced as the DH, the individual may remain in the game as a pitcher. However, the P/DH cannot afterward move to a defensive position and cannot return as the DH. Once a player leaves the offensive line-up they cannot return.

If a game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position, this will terminate the DH's role for the rest of the game. The pitcher just removed from the mound may bat in the DH's spot in the batting order; or if more than one defensive change is made, the pitcher (not a P/DH) may bat in place of any one of the substituted players (manager will designate the place in the batting order to the Umpire). The player may return as a pitcher once unless the pitcher was removed as pitcher on a second trip during the same inning or after the third charged defensive conference involving a manager or coach.

At the time of a pitching change, the manager shall indicate to the plate Umpire the playing status of the removed player.

Once the manager has reached the dugout, the manager may not move the replaced pitcher (or P/DH) to a defensive position or have the replaced pitcher remain as DH.

Example: Home team relief pitcher Jones pitched the top of the ninth inning. He was not playing as a P/DH. For the top of the tenth inning, Jones moved to first base and relief pitcher Smith entered the game as the pitcher. Jones was placed in the eighth spot in the order where the first baseman Carter was hitting, and Smith was slotted into the third spot for the DH Anderson.

8.4 THE BATTER'S BOX

8.4.1 The batter shall take his position in the batter's box promptly when it is his time at bat.

8.4.2 The batter shall not leave his position in the batter's box after the pitcher comes to set position or starts his windup.

Penalty: If the pitcher pitches, the Umpire shall call "Ball" or "Strike," as the case may be.

8.5 THE BATTER'S BOX RULE

This rule is designed to speed up play by controlling the actions of the batter between pitches.

8.5.1 The batter must keep one foot in the batter's box between pitches. Failure to keep one foot in the batter's box shall result in a strike being called on the batter. The batter may only step out of the batter's box with both feet in the following circumstances:

8.5.1.1 When the ball is hit.

8.5.1.2 On a swing, provided it is the momentum of the swing that takes him out of the batter's box.

8.5.1.3 If forced out of the batter's box to a valid pitch.

8.5.1.4 On a wild pitch or passed ball.

8.5.1.5 On an attempted play at the plate or by the catcher on an advancing runner or by any player.

8.5.1.6 If the catcher is attempting to make a play (i.e. pop fly).

8.5.1.7 If time has been called, or the plate Umpire leaves his position to perform other duties not directly connected with the calling of plays.

8.5.1.8 If the pitcher leaves the mound.

8.5.1.9 On a three-ball count that the batter thinks the pitch was a ball.

8.5.1.10 On a checked swing.

8.5.1.11 On a bunt attempt.

Penalty: A delay of the game caused by the failure of the batter to keep one foot in the batter's box between pitches will result in the ball being declared dead and a strike awarded against the batter. The plate Umpire shall call and signal "DEAD BALL," point to the batter's box and say "BATTER'S BOX VIOLATION," awarding a strike on the batter and giving the new count.

8.5.2 The batter may leave the batter's box and the dirt area when time is granted for the purpose of:

8.5.2.1 Making a substitution.

8.5.2.2 An offensive conference.

8.5.2.3 A defensive conference.

8.5.2.4 An injury or potential injury.

8.6 A BALL

8.6.1 A pitched ball at which the batter does not strike, and which does not enter the strike zone on the fly.

8.6.2 Called by the Umpire when the pitcher makes an illegal pitch or a quick return pitch with the bases unoccupied unless the batter safely reaches base.

8.6.3 Called by the Umpire when the pitcher takes the signal from an illegal position.

8.6.4 Called by the Umpire when the pitcher fails to begin his pitching motion within 20 seconds in violation of the clock rule.

8.7 BATTER ILLEGAL ACTION

A batter is out for illegal action when:

8.7.1 A ball hit, fair or foul, by the batter when either one or both batter's feet are upon the ground entirely outside the lines of the batter's box or when touching home plate; or

8.7.2 A ball is hit with a bat that is an illegal bat. A bat that, in the Umpire's judgement has been altered or tampered with

Comment: A batter shall be deemed to have used or attempted to use an illegal bat if he brings such a bat into the batter's box. No advancement on the bases will be allowed (except advancements that are not caused by the use of an illegal bat, e.g., stolen base, balk, wild pitch, passed ball) and any out or outs made during a play shall stand. In addition to being called out, the player shall be ejected from the game.

8.7.3 He steps from one batter's box to the other while the pitcher is in position ready to pitch.

8.7.4 He interferes with the catcher's fielding or throwing by stepping out of the batter's box or making any other movement that hinders the catcher's play at home base.

8.7.5 He throws his bat into fair or foul territory and hits a catcher (including the catcher's glove) and the catcher was attempting to catch a pitch with a runner(s) on base and/or the pitch was a third strike.

Exception: to Rule 8.7.4 and Rule 8.7.5

If the batter interferes with the catcher, the plate Umpire shall call "interference." The batter is out and the ball is dead. No player may advance on such interference (offensive interference) and all runners must return to the last base that was, in the judgement of the Umpire, legally touched at the time of the interference. If, however, the catcher makes a play and the runner attempting to advance is put out, it is to be assumed there was no actual interference, and that runner is out, not the batter. Any other runners on the base at the time may advance as the ruling is that there is no actual interference if a runner is retired. In that case play proceeds just as if no violation had been called.

If a batter strikes at a ball and misses and swings so hard he carries the bat all the way around and, in the Umpire's judgement, unintentionally hits the catcher or the ball in back of him on the backswing, it shall be called a strike only (not interference). The ball will be dead, however, and no runner shall advance on the play.

8.8 ILLEGALLY BATTED BALL

A Ball hit, fair or foul, by the batter when either one or both of the batter's feet are upon the ground entirely outside the lines of the batter's box, or a ball hit with an illegal bat.

Note: If the pitch is swung at and missed, a strike shall be called.

Penalty: The batter is out.

8.9 BATTING OUT OF TURN

8.9.1 A batter shall be called out, on appeal, when he fails to bat in his proper turn, and another batter completes a time at bat in his place.

8.9.2 The proper batter may take his place in the batter's box at any time before the improper batter becomes a runner or is put out, and any balls and strikes shall be counted in the proper batter's time at bat.

8.9.3 When an improper batter becomes a runner or is put out, and the defensive team appeals to the Umpire before the first pitch to the next batter of either team, or before any play or attempted play, the Umpire shall (1) declare the proper batter out; and (2) nullify any advance or score made because of a ball batted by the improper batter or because of the improper batter's advance to first base on a hit, an error, a base on balls, a hit batter or otherwise.

8.9.4 If a runner advances, while the improper batter is at bat, on a stolen base, balk, wild pitch or passed ball, such advance is legal.

8.9.5 When an improper batter becomes a runner or is put out, and a pitch is made to the next batter of either team before an appeal is made, the improper batter thereby becomes the proper batter, and the results of his time at bat become legal.

8.9.6 When the proper batter is called out because he has failed to bat in the proper turn, the next batter shall be the batter whose name follows that of the proper batter thus called out.

8.9.7 When an improper batter becomes a proper batter because no appeal is made before the next pitch, the next batter shall be the batter whose name follows that of such legalised improper batter. The instant an improper batter's actions are legalised, the batting order picks up with the name following that of the legalised improper batter.

Note: The Umpire shall not direct any person's attention to the presence of an improper batter in the batter's box. This rule is designed to require constant vigilance by the players and managers of both teams.

There are two fundamentals to keep in mind:

- When a player bats out of turn, the proper batter is the player called out.
- If an improper batter bats and reaches base or is out and no appeal is made before a pitch to the next batter or before any play or attempted play, the improper batter is considered to have batted in proper turn and establishes the order that is to follow.

Example: Play 1: Runners on first and third. Charles bats in place of Baker. Charles grounds to short; runner forced at second; Charles beats relay to first; runner on third scores. An appeal is made.

Ruling: Baker is declared out. Runners return to first and third. Charles is the next batter.

Play 2: Runners on first and third. Charles bats in place of Baker. Charles grounds to short; runner forced at second; Charles is out at first for double play; runner on third scores. An appeal is made.

Ruling: Baker is declared out. Runners return to first and third. Charles is the next batter.

8.10 CATCHER INTERFERENCE

The batter becomes a runner and is entitled to first base without liability to be put out (provided he advances to and touches first base) when the catcher or any fielder interferes with him. If a play follows the interference, the manager of the offence may choose to decline the interference penalty and accept the result of the play. Such action shall be made immediately at the end of the play. However, if the batter reaches first base on a hit, an error, a base on balls, a hit batsman, or otherwise, and all other runners advance at least one base, the play stands, and the interference is disregarded.

Example: Plays the manager might elect to take the play: Runner on second base. The catcher interferes with the batter as he bunts the ball fairly sending runner to third base. The manager may rather have a runner on third base with an out on the play than have runners on second and first.

The runner on third, one out, and the batter hits a fly ball to the outfield that the runner scores, but catcher's interference was called. The offensive manager may elect to take the run and have the batter called out or have the runner remain at third and the batter awarded first base.

Any runner attempting to steal on a catcher's interference with the batter's swing shall be awarded the base the runner is attempting to reach. If a runner is not attempting to steal on the catcher's interference, the runner is not entitled to the next base, unless he is forced to advance because of the batter being awarded first base.

If there is a catcher's interference on a squeeze play or a steal of home, the batter is awarded first base, the run scores and all other runners advance one base on the balk created by the interference.

8.11 WHEN BATTER OR BATTER-RUNNER IS OUT

A batter is out when:

8.11.1 His fair or foul fly ball (other than a foul tip) is legally caught by a fielder.

8.11.2 The catcher catches a called, swinging or foul tip third strike.

8.11.3 Three strikes are called, and first base is occupied with less than two out.

8.11.4 After a third strike or after he hits a fair ball, he or first base is tagged before he touches first base.

8.11.5 After hitting or bunting a fair ball, his bat hits the ball a second time in fair territory. The ball is dead, and no runners may advance. If he drops his bat and the ball rolls against the bat in fair territory, and in the Umpire's judgement, there was no intention to interfere with the course of the ball; the ball is live and in play. If the batter is in a legal position in the batter's box, and, in the judgement of the Umpire, there was no intent to interfere with the course of the ball, a batted ball that strikes the batter or his bat will be ruled a foul ball.

8.11.6 He bunts foul on the third strike

8.11.7 Swings at a third strike and misses, and the ball touches any part of the batter's body or is not swung at, and the pitched ball hits the batter while the pitch is in the strike zone.

8.11.8 Has a foot completely outside the lines of the batter's box and touching the ground.

8.11.9 His fair ball touches him before touching a fielder.

8.11.10 After hitting or bunting a ball that continues to move over foul territory, he intentionally deflects the course of the ball in any manner while running to first base.

8.11.11 In running the last half of the distance from home plate to first base, while the ball is being fielded to first base, he runs outside (to the right of) the three-foot lane or inside (to the left of) the foul line, and in the Umpire's judgement in so doing interferes with the fielder taking the throw at first base. Exception: he may run outside (to the right of) the three-foot lane or inside (to the left of) the foul line to avoid a fielder attempting to field a batted ball.

Comment: The lines marking the three-foot lane are a part of that lane, and a batter-runner is required to have both feet within the three-foot lane or on the lines marking the lane. The batter-runner is permitted to exit the three-foot lane by means of a step, stride, reach or slide in the immediate vicinity of first base for the sole purpose of touching first base.

8.11.12 An infielder intentionally drops a fair fly ball or line drive with first, first and second, first and third, or first, second and third base occupied before two are out.

Approved Ruling: In this situation, the batter is not out if the infielder permits the ball to drop untouched to the ground, except when the Infield Fly rule applies.

8.11.13 A preceding runner who, in the Umpire's judgement, intentionally interferes with a fielder who is attempting to catch a thrown ball or to throw a ball in an attempt to complete any play.

Note: The ball is declared dead, and runners must return to the base that was occupied at the time of the pitch.

8.11.14 With two out, a runner on third base, and two strikes on the batter, the runner attempts to steal home on a legal pitch, and the ball touches the runner in the batter's strike zone, the Umpire will call "Strike Three," the batter is out and the run does not count. Before two are out, the Umpire shall call "Strike Three," the ball is dead, and the run counts.

8.11.15 A member of his team (other than a runner) hinders a fielder's attempt to catch or field a batted ball.

RULE 9. BASE RUNNING

Base running happens once the batter safely reaches first base. Base runners then attempt to advance to second base, third base, then finally score at home plate before there are three outs.

9.1 LEGAL ORDER OF BASES

The runner must touch each base in legal order (first, second, third and home) and, when obliged to return while the ball is in play, must retouch the base or bases in reverse order.

Penalty: For failure to touch a base while advancing or returning. The runner is out if the fielder touches him with the ball in his hands before returning to each untouched base. If the base missed was one to which the runner was forced, the runner is out when tagged or if the ball is held by a fielder on any base the runner failed to touch (including home plate).

A base runner after reaching a base legally, cannot run the bases in reverse order to either confuse the fielders or to make a travesty of the game. A runner violating this rule is out.

If a runner is in a run down between bases and the following runner occupies the same base that the first runner has left, the second runner cannot be put out while occupying said base. If the first runner, however, returns safely to the base last touched and both runners are then occupying the same base, the second runner is out, if touched with the ball and there is no force.

Note: No runner shall advance on an interference play called on another runner. A runner is considered to occupy a base until he legally has reached and touched the next base.

The failure of a preceding runner to touch or retouch a base (and who is therefore declared out) shall not affect the status of a following runner who touches each base in proper order, except that, after two are out, a following runner cannot score a run when a preceding runner is declared out for failing to touch a base.

9.2 BATTER BECOMES BASE RUNNER

The batter becomes a base runner:

9.2.1 Immediately after, the individual makes a fair hit.

Note: If the batter hits a pitch that touches the ground first, the following action shall be the same as if it hit the ball in flight.

9.2.2 The third strike called by the Umpire is not caught, providing:

The first base is unoccupied.

The first base is occupied with two out.

Note: A batter who does not realize his situation on a third strike not caught and who is not in the process of running to first base shall be declared out once he leaves the dirt circle surrounding home plate.

9.2.3 If the pitch touches the ground and bounces through the strike zone, it is a "ball." If such a pitch touches the batter, he shall be awarded first base. If the batter swings at such a pitch after two strikes, the ball cannot be caught.

9.2.4 A fair ball, after having passed a fielder other than the pitcher or after having been touched by a fielder, including the pitcher, shall touch an Umpire or runner on fair territory.

9.2.5 A fair ball passes over a fence or into the stands at a distance from home plate of 250 feet (76.2 m) or more. Such a hit entitles the batter to a home run when he shall have touched all bases legally. A fair fly ball that passes out of the playing field at a point less than 250 feet (76.2 m) from home plate shall entitle the batter to advance to second base only.

9.2.6 A fair ball, after touching the ground, bounds into the stands, or passes through, over or under a fence, or through or under a scoreboard, or through or under shrubbery or vines on the fence, in which case the batter and the runners shall be entitled to advance two bases.

9.2.7 Any fair ball which, either before or after touching the ground, passes through or under a fence, or through or under a scoreboard, or through any opening in the fence or scoreboard, or through or under shrubbery, or vines on the fence, or which sticks in a fence or scoreboard, in which case the batter and the runners shall be entitled to two bases.

9.2.8 Any bounding fair ball is deflected by the fielder into the stands, or over or under a fence on fair or foul territory, in which case the batter and all runners shall be entitled to advance two bases.

9.2.9 Any fair fly ball is deflected by the fielder into the stands or over the fence into foul territory, in which case the batter shall be entitled to advance to second base. If it is deflected into the stands or over the fence in fair territory, the batter shall be entitled to a home run. However, should such a fair fly ball be deflected at a point less than 250 feet (76.2 m) from home plate, the batter shall be entitled to two bases only.

The batter becomes a runner and is entitled to first base without the liability to be put out (provided he advances to and touches first base):

9.2.10 After four balls have been called by the Umpire or if awarded an intentional base on balls.

9.2.11 When hit by a pitched ball at which the individual is not attempting to strike, the ball is immediately dead.

9.2.11.1 A batter may not make a movement to intentionally get hit by the pitch, no matter where the pitch is. He must also avoid being hit whenever possible unless the pitch is within the batter's box occupied by the batter. If the batter's reaction is determined to be intentional, then:
-If the ball is in the strike zone when it touches the batter, or if the batter moves to intentionally get hit by the pitch, it shall be called a strike, and the batter is not awarded first base.

-If the ball is within the batter's box occupied by the batter and the batter makes no movement to intentionally get hit by the pitch, the batter is awarded first base.

9.2.11.2 If the pitch is ball four, the batter will be awarded first base and credited for being hit by the pitch (the ball is dead).

9.2.12 If any defensive player interferes with the batter's swing or prevents the individual from striking at a pitched ball.

9.2.13 A fair ball touches an Umpire or a runner on fair territory before touching a fielder.

Note: If a fair ball touches an Umpire after having passed a fielder other than the pitcher or having touched a fielder, including the pitcher, the ball is in play.

9.3 ENTITLED TO BASES OR OCCUPYING A BASE

9.3.1 A runner acquires the right to an unoccupied base when he touches it before he is put out. He is then entitled to it until he is put out or forced to vacate it for another runner legally entitled to that base.

9.3.2 Two runners may not occupy a base, but if, while the ball is alive, two runners are touching a base, the following runner shall be out when tagged, and the preceding runner is entitled to the base unless Rule 10.4 applies.

9.4 ADVANCING BASES

In advancing, a runner shall touch first, second, third and home base in order. If forced to return, he shall retouch all bases in reverse order.

If a runner is forced to advance because the batter becomes a runner and two runners are touching a base to which the following runner is forced, the following runner is entitled to the base, and the preceding runner shall be out when tagged or when a fielder has the ball and touches the base to which that preceding runner is forced. Each runner, other than the batter, may, without liability to be put out, advance one base when:

9.4.1 There is a balk.

9.4.2 The batter's advance without liability to be put out forces the runner to vacate his base, or when the batter hits a fair ball that touches another runner or the Umpire before the ball has been touched by or has passed a fielder if the runner is forced to advance.

9.4.3 A fielder, after catching a fly ball, steps or falls into any out-of-play area. When a fielder, after having made a legal catch, steps or falls into any out-of-play area, the ball is dead, and each runner shall advance one base, without the liability to be put out, from his last legally occupied base at the time the fielder entered out of play area.

9.4.4 A spectator or any other individual intentionally interferes with any thrown or batted ball.

9.4.5 While the runner is attempting to steal a base, the batter is interfered with by the catcher or any other fielder.

9.4.6 A fielder deliberately touches a pitched ball with his cap, mask or any part of his uniform detached from its proper place on his person. The ball is in play, and the award is made from the position of the runner at the time the ball was touched.

9.4.7 Each runner, including the batter-runner, may, without liability to be put out, advance:

9.4.7.1 To home plate, scoring a run, if a fair ball goes out of the playing field in flight and he touches all the bases legally. Or if a fair ball, which, in the Umpire's judgement, would have gone out of the playing field in flight, is deflected by the act of a fielder throwing his glove, cap, or any article of his clothing.

9.4.7.2 Three bases, if a fielder deliberately touches a fair ball with his cap, mask or any part of his uniform detached from its proper place. The ball is in play, and the batter may advance to home plate at his own risk.

9.4.7.3 Three bases if a fielder deliberately throws his glove at and touches a fair ball. The ball is in play, and the batter may advance to home plate at his own risk.

9.4.7.4 Two bases, if a fielder deliberately touches a thrown ball with his cap, mask or any part of his uniform detached from its proper place. The ball is in play.

9.4.7.5 Two bases, if a fielder deliberately throws his glove at and touches a thrown ball. The ball is in play.

Note: The Umpire must rule that the thrown glove or detached cap or mask has touched the ball. There is no penalty if the ball is NOT touched.

There is no penalty if the glove of the fielder is knocked off by the force of a batted or thrown ball or if his glove flies off his hand in an obvious effort to make a legitimate catch.

9.4.7.6 Two bases, if a fair ball bounces or is deflected into the stands outside the first or third base foul lines. Or if it goes through or under a field fence, a scoreboard, shrubbery, or vines on the fence or if it sticks in the fence, shrubbery, scoreboard, or vines.

9.4.7.7 Two bases when, with no spectators on the playing field, a thrown ball goes into the stands or into a bench or over, through, under a field fence or a slanting part of the screen above the backstop or stays in the meshes of a wire screen protecting spectators. The ball is dead. When such a wild throw is the first play by an infielder, the Umpire, in awarding such bases, shall be governed by the position of the runners at the time the ball was pitched. In all other cases, the Umpire shall be governed by the position of the runners at the time the wild throw was made.

Note: In certain circumstances, it is impossible to award a runner two bases. For example: Runner on first. The batter hits a fly to short right. The runner holds up between first and second, and the batter comes around first and pulls up behind him. The ball falls safely. The outfielder, in throwing to first base, throws the ball into the stands.

Ruling: Since no runner, when the ball is dead, may advance beyond the base to which he is entitled, the runner originally on the first base goes to third base, and the batter-runner is held at second base.

9.4.7.8 One base, if a pitched ball to the batter or thrown by the pitcher from his position on the pitcher's plate to a base to catch a runner, goes into the stands or a bench or through or over a fence or backstop. The ball is dead.

Approved Ruling: When a wild pitch or a passed ball goes through or by the catcher or deflects off the catcher and goes directly out of play, the award is one base. If, however, the pitched or thrown ball goes through the catcher or the fielder but remains in play, and the catcher or fielder inadvertently deflects it to the stands or dugout or other area in dead ball territory, the award is two bases from the position of the runners at the time of the pitch or throw.

9.5 DEAD BALLS

The ball becomes dead, and runners advance one base or return to their bases, without liability to be put out, when:

9.5.1 A pitched ball touches a batter or his clothing while in his legal batting position; runners, if forced, advance

9.5.2 The plate Umpire interferes with the catcher's throw attempting to prevent a stolen base or retire a runner on a pick-off play, runners may not advance.

Note: The interference will be disregarded if the catcher's throw retires the runner.

While the ball is dead, no player may be put out, no bases may be run, and no runs may be scored, except that runners may advance one or more bases as the result of acts which occurred while the ball was alive (such as, but not limited to a balk, an overthrow, interference, or a homerun or other fair ball hit out of the playing field).

Umpire Interference can also happen when an Umpire interferes with a catcher returning the ball to the pitcher.

9.5.3 A balk is committed, and runners advance.

9.5.4 A ball is illegally batted; runners return.

9.5.5 A foul ball is not caught, in which case runners return to their bases. The plate Umpire will not put the ball in play until all runners have retouched their bases.

9.5.6 A fair ball touches a runner or an Umpire on fair territory before it touches an infielder, including the pitcher, or touches an Umpire before it has passed an infielder other than the pitcher; runners advance if they are forced.

If a fair ball goes through, or by, an infielder and no other infielder has a chance to make a play on the ball and the ball touches a runner immediately behind the infielder that the ball went through or by, the ball is in play, and the Umpire shall not declare the runner out. If a fair ball touches a runner after being deflected by an infielder, the ball is in play, and the Umpire shall not declare the runner out.

Comment: If a fair ball touches an Umpire working in the infield after it has gone past, or over, the pitcher, it is a dead ball. If a batted ball is deflected by a fielder in fair territory and hits a runner or an Umpire while still in flight and then caught by an infielder, it shall not be a catch, but the ball shall remain in play.

9.5.7 A pitched ball lodges in the catcher's mask or paraphernalia, or in or against the Umpire's body, mask, or paraphernalia, and remains out of play, runners advance one base.

Comment: If a foul tip hits the Umpire and is caught by a fielder on the rebound, the ball is "dead," and the batter cannot be called out. The same shall apply where such foul tip lodges in the Umpire's mask or other paraphernalia.

If a third strike (not a foul tip) passes the catcher and hits an Umpire, the ball is in play. If that ball rebounds and is caught by a fielder before it touches the ground, the batter is not out on such a catch, but the ball remains in play, and the batter may be retired at first base or touched with the ball for the out.

If a pitched ball lodges in the Umpire's or catcher's mask or paraphernalia and remains out of play on the third strike or fourth ball, then the batter is entitled to first base, and all runners advance one base. If the count on the batter is less than three balls, runners advance one base.

If a ball is intentionally placed inside a player's uniform (e.g., a pants pocket) for the purpose of deceiving a base runner, the Umpire shall call "Time." The Umpire will place all runners at least one base (or more if warranted, in the Umpire's judgement, to nullify the action of the ball being put out of play) from the base they originally occupied.

9.5.8 Any legal pitch touches a runner trying to score; runners advance.

9.6 FORCE PLAY-SLIDE RULE (SLIDING TO BASES ON DOUBLE PLAY ATTEMPTS)

If a runner does not engage in a bona fide slide and initiates (or attempts to make) contact with the fielder for the purpose of breaking up a double play, he should be called for interference under this rule. A "bona fide slide" for purposes of this rule occurs when the runner:

- 9.6.1 Begins his slide (i.e., makes contact with the ground) before reaching the base.
- 9.6.2 Is able and attempts to reach the base with his hand or foot.
- 9.6.3 Is able and attempts to remain on the base (except home plate) after completion of the slide.
- 9.6.4 Slides within reach of the base without changing his pathway for the purpose of initiating contact with a fielder.

A runner who engages in a "bona fide slide" shall not be called for interference under this rule, even in cases where the runner makes contact with the fielder as a consequence of a permissible slide. In addition, interference shall not be called where a runner's contact with the fielder was caused by the fielder being positioned in (or moving into) the runner's legal pathway to the base.

Notwithstanding the above, a slide shall not be a "bona fide slide" if a runner engages in a "roll block" or intentionally initiates (or attempts to initiate) contact with the fielder by elevating and kicking his leg above the fielder's knee or throwing his arm or his upper body.

If the Umpire determines that the runner violated this rule, the Umpire shall declare both the runner and batter-runner out. Note, however, that if the runner has already been put out, then the runner on whom the defence was attempting to make a play shall be declared out.

Note: Runners cannot advance, and runs do not score.

9.7 WHEN RUNNERS ARE OUT

Any runner is out when:

- 9.7.1 When running to a base, he runs more than 3 feet (0.91 m) away from his base path to avoid being tagged unless his action is to avoid interference with a fielder fielding a batted ball. A runner's base path is established when the tag attempt occurs and is a straight line from the runner to the base he is attempting to reach safely.
- 9.7.2 After touching the first base, he leaves the base path, obviously abandoning his effort to touch the next base.
- 9.7.3 He intentionally interferes with a thrown ball or hinders a fielder attempting to make a play on a batted ball.
- 9.7.4 He is tagged when the ball is alive while off his base.

Exception: A batter-runner cannot be tagged out after overrunning or over-sliding first base if he returns immediately to the base. Makes no attempt to advance to the next base.

9.7.5 He fails to retouch his base after a fair or foul ball is legally caught before he, or his base, is tagged by a fielder. He shall not be called out for failure to retouch his base after the first following pitch or any play or attempted play. This is an appeal play.

9.7.6 He or the next base is tagged before he touches the next base after he has been forced to advance by reason of the batter becoming a runner. However, if a following runner is put out on a force play, the force is removed as soon as the runner touches the base to which he is forced to advance, and if he overslides or overruns the base, the runner must be tagged to be put out. However, if the forced runner, after touching the next base, retreats for any reason towards the base he had last occupied, the force play is reinstated, and he can again be put out if the defence tags the base to which he is forced.

Play: Runner on first and three balls on the batter. The runner steals on the next pitch, which is ball four, but after having touched second, he overslides or overruns that base. The catcher's throw catches him before he can return.

Ruling: Runner is out. Force is removed.

Comment: Oversliding and overrunning situations arise at bases other than first base. For instance, before two are out, and runners on first and second, or first, second and third, the ball is hit to an infielder who tries for the double play. The runner on first beats the throw to second base but overslides the base. The relay throw is made to first base, and the batter-runner is out. The first baseman, seeing the runner at second base off the bag, makes the return throw to second, and the runner is tagged off the base. Meanwhile, runners have crossed the plate. Is this a force play? Was the force removed when the batter-runner was out at first base? Do the runs that crossed the plate during this play and before the third out was made when the runner was tagged at the second count?

The runs score. It is not a force play. It is a tag play.

9.7.7 He is touched by a fair ball in fair territory before the ball has gone through or by an infielder, and no other infielder has a chance to make a play on the ball. The ball is dead, and no runner may score nor runners advance, except runners forced to advance.

Exception: If a runner is touching his base when hit by an Infield Fly, he is not out, although the batter is out. If a runner is touched by an Infield Fly when he is not touching his base, and before the ball has gone through, or by an infielder and no other infielder has a chance to make a play on the ball, both the runner and batter are out. Regardless of whether a runner is touching his base or not when touched by an Infield Fly before the ball has gone through or by an infielder and no other infielder has a chance to make a play on the ball, the ball is dead, and no runner may score, nor runners advance, except runners forced to advance.

9.7.8 He attempts to score on a play in which the batter interferes with the play at home base before two are out. With two out, the interference puts the batter out, and no score counts.

9.7.9 He passes a preceding runner before that runner is out.

9.7.10 After he has acquired legal possession of a base, he runs the bases in reverse order for the purpose of confusing the defence or making a travesty of the game. The Umpire shall immediately call "Time" and declare the runner out.

9.7.11 He fails to return at once to first base after overrunning or oversliding that base. If he attempts to run to second, he is out when tagged. If, after overrunning or oversliding first base, he starts toward the dugout or toward his position and fails to return to first base at once, he is out, on appeal, when he or the base is tagged.

9.7.12 When running or sliding to the home plate, he fails to touch the plate and makes no attempt to return to the plate when a fielder holds the ball in his hand while touching the home base and appeals to the umpire for the decision.

Note: This rule applies only when the runner is on his way to the bench, and the catcher would be required to chase him. It does not apply to ordinary play when a runner misses the plate and then immediately makes an effort to touch the plate before being tagged. In that case, the runner must be tagged.

9.7.13 A play is being made on him, and a member of his team (other than a runner) hinders a fielder's attempt to field a thrown ball.

9.7.14 A coach touches or holds a runner and physically assists the runner in returning to or leaving a base.

9.7.15 While the third base is occupied, the third base coach runs in the direction of home plate on or near the baseline while a fielder is making or trying to make a play and thereby draws a throw to home plate. The base runner on third shall be declared out for the coach's interference.

9.7.16 A batter-runner throws the bat, which interferes with a defensive player making a play.

9.7.17 The runner deliberately knocks the ball from the fielder's hand. The ball is immediately dead.

9.7.18 A batter or any other runner who has just been put out interferes with a play being made on a runner.

RULE 10. APPEAL PLAYS

10.1 WHEN RUNNERS ARE OUT ON APPEALS

A runner shall be called out on appeals that occur because of a base running error when:

10.1.1 The base runner does not retouch the base before a fielder tags the runner or the base after a fair or foul fly ball is touched in making a legal catch.

10.1.2 With the ball in play, while advancing or returning to a base, he fails to touch each base in order before he or a missed base is tagged.

Approved Ruling:

10.1.3 No runner may return to touch a missed base after a following runner has scored.

10.1.4 When the ball is dead, no runner may return to touch a missed base or one he has left after he has advanced to and touched a base beyond the missed base.

Play: A batter hits the ball out of the park or a ground-rule double and misses first base (the ball is dead). He may return to first base to correct his mistake before he touches second. If he touches second, he may not return to first, and if the defensive team appeals, he is declared out at first.

Batter hits the ball to shortstop, who throws wild into the stands. The ball is dead. The batter-runner misses first base but is awarded second base on the overthrow. Even though the Umpire has awarded the runner second base, the runner must touch first base before he proceeds to second base. These are appeal plays.

10.1.5 The runner starts from a position behind the base in order to get a running start, whether on a pitch or tagging up for a fly ball.

10.1.6 He fails to touch the home plate and makes no attempt to return to that base, and the home plate is tagged. Any appeal under this rule must be made before the next pitch or any play or attempted play. If the violation occurs during a play that ends in a half-inning, an appeal must be made before the defensive team leaves the field. For the purpose of identifying who left the field, the pitcher and all infielders left fair territory, and the catcher left his position.

10.1.7 The procedure for a base running appeal play is as follows:

10.1.7.1 A live ball is returned to the base.

10.1.7.2 If the ball is dead, the pitcher must receive a ball from the Umpire and then take a position on the pitcher's rubber. After the Umpire calls "PLAY," the pitcher may legally step back off the rubber and return the ball to the base, and the fielder may tag the runner or the base.

10.1.8 An appeal is not to be interpreted as a play or an attempted play. Exception: if the pitcher balks on an appeal attempt, it is considered a play.

10.1.9 The defensive team receives only one chance on an appeal. In the case of multiple appeals, if the defence errs during its first appeal attempt or any base runner advances, the defence loses its right to appeal to any runner at any base.

10.1.10 If the offensive team initiates a play before the next pitch, the defensive team does not lose its right to appeal.

Example: Two outs. R2 misses third base on his way to home plate. The batter-runner stops at first base. If the defensive team appeals at third base and is successful, that is the third out, and no runs score. The batter-runner knows this, so he takes off for second base before the defensive teams appeal. If the defensive team makes a play on him and retires him, they still have the opportunity to appeal to R2 missing third base.

10.1.11 If there is possibly more than one runner involved in an appeal at a base, the defensive team must declare on which runner the appeal is being made. If the defensive team fails to identify which runner, the Umpire should give no signal. If the appeal is made against the improper runner, the Umpire shall give the safe sign, and no further appeal shall be allowed at that base.

10.1.12 If there are two or more appeals during a play, which could make a total of "four outs" in an inning, the defensive team may choose to take any out it desires.

10.1.13 If there are two outs before the appeal on a runner, the appeal becomes the third out, and no runners following the appealed out shall score. If the appeal is a force-out, no runners preceding or following the appeal out shall score.

10.1.14 It is not a balk for a pitcher, while in contact with the rubber (does not step back), to throw to an unoccupied base for the purpose of making an appeal play.

Comment: An appeal should be clearly intended as an appeal, either by a verbal request by the player or an act that unmistakably indicates an appeal to the Umpire. A player inadvertently stepping on the base with a ball in his hand would not constitute an appeal. Time is not out when an appeal is being made.

10.2 EFFECT OF PRECEDING RUNNER'S FAILURE TO TOUCH A BASE

Unless two are out, the status of a following runner is not affected by a preceding runner's failure to touch or retouch a base. If, upon appeal, the preceding runner is the third out, no runners following him shall score. If such a third out is the result of a force play, neither preceding nor following runners shall score.

10.3 RETIRING THE SIDE

When three offensive players are legally put out, that team takes the field, and the opposing team becomes the offensive team.

RULE 11. INTERFERENCE, OBSTRUCTION AND CACHE COLLISIONS

11.1 BATTER OR RUNNER INTERFERENCE

It is interference by a batter or a runner when:

11.1.1 After a third strike that is not caught by the catcher, the batter-runner clearly hinders the catcher in his attempt to field the ball. Such batter-runner is out, the ball is dead, and all other runners return to the bases they occupied at the time of pitch. If a pitch that is not caught remains in the vicinity of home plate and is inadvertently deflected by the batter or Umpire, the ball is dead, and the runners return to the bases they occupied at the time of the pitch (but if the pitch was strike three, the batter is out).

Comment: If the pitched ball deflects off the catcher or Umpire and subsequently touches the batter-runner, it is not considered interference unless, in the judgement of the Umpire, the batter-runner clearly hinders the catcher in his attempt to field the ball.

11.1.2 He intentionally deflects the course of a foul ball in any manner.

11.1.3 Before two are out and a runner is on third base, the batter hinders a fielder from making a play at home base, and the runner is out.

11.1.4 Any member or members of the offensive team stand or gather around any base to which a runner is advancing to confuse, hinder or add to the difficulty of making the play. Such a runner will be declared out for the interference of his teammate or teammates.

11.1.5 Any batter or runner who has just been put out, or any runner who has just scored, hinders or impedes any following play being made on a runner. Such a runner will be declared out for the interference of his teammate.

11.1.6 If in the judgement of the Umpire, a base runner willfully and deliberately interferes with a batted ball or a fielder in the act of fielding a batted ball with the obvious intent to break up a double play, the ball is dead. The Umpire shall call the runner out for interference and also call out the batter-runner because of his teammate's action. In no event may bases be run or runs scored because of such action by a runner.

11.1.7 If, in the judgement of the Umpire, a batter-runner willfully and deliberately interferes with a batted ball or a fielder in the act of fielding a batted ball with the obvious intent to break up a double play, the ball is dead. The Umpire shall call the batter-runner out for interference and shall call out the runner who had advanced closest to the home plate regardless of where the double play might have been possible. In no event may bases be run because of such interference.

11.1.8 In the judgement of the Umpire, the base coach at third base or first base, by touching or holding the runner, physically assists him in returning to or leaving third base or first base.

11.1.9 With a runner on third base, the base coach leaves his box and runs in the direction of home plate or near the baseline while a fielder is attempting to make a play on a batted or thrown ball and thereby draws a throw to home plate.

11.1.10 He fails to avoid a fielder who is attempting to field a batted ball or intentionally interferes with a thrown ball, provided that if two or more fielders attempt to field a batted ball, and the runner comes in contact with one or more of them, the Umpire shall determine which fielder is entitled to the benefit of this rule, and shall not declare the runner out for coming in contact with a fielder other than the one the Umpire determines to be entitled to field such a ball. The Umpire shall call the runner out. If the third out occurs because a runner is declared out for interference on a foul batted ball, the batter-runner is considered to have completed his at-bat, and the first batter up the following inning will be the player who follows him in the batting order (if there are less than two outs, the batter will complete his at-bat). If the batter-runner is adjudged not to have hindered a fielder attempting to make a play on a batted ball, and if the base runner's interference is adjudged not to be intentional, the batter-runner shall be awarded first base.

11.1.11 A fair ball touches him in fair territory before touching a fielder.

If a ball goes through, or by, an infielder and touches a runner immediately back of him or touches the runner after having been deflected by a fielder, the Umpire shall not declare the runner out for being touched by a batted ball. In making such a decision, the Umpire must be convinced that the ball passed through, or by, the fielder and that no other infielder had the opportunity to make a play on the ball. If, in the judgement of the Umpire, the runner deliberately and intentionally kicks such a batted ball on which the infielder has missed a play, then the runner shall be called out for interference.

PENALTY FOR INTERFERENCE

The runner is out, and the ball is dead.

If the Umpire declares the batter, batter-runner, or runner out for interference, all other runners shall return to the last base that was, in the judgement of the Umpire, legally touched at the time of the interference unless otherwise provided by these rules.

In the event the batter-runner has not reached first base, all runners shall return to the base last occupied at the time of the pitch, provided, however, if during an intervening play at the plate with less than two outs a runner scores, and then the batter-runner is called out for interference outside the three-foot lane, the runner is safe, and the run shall count.

Comment: A runner who is adjudged to have hindered a fielder who is attempting to make a play on a batted ball is out, whether it was intentional or not. If, however, the runner has contact with a legally occupied base when he hinders the fielder, he shall not be called out unless, in the Umpire's judgment, such hindrance, whether it occurs on fair or foul territory, is intentional. If the Umpire declares the hindrance intentional, the following penalty shall be applied: With less than two out, the Umpire shall declare both the runner and batter-runner out. With two out, the Umpire shall declare the batter out.

If, in a run-down between third base and home plate, the succeeding runner has advanced and is standing on third base when the runner in a run-down is called out for offensive interference, the Umpire shall send the runner standing on third base back to second base.

This same principle applies if there is a run-down between the second and third base and the following runner has reached the second (the reasoning is that no runner shall advance on an interference play, and a runner is considered to occupy a base until he legally has reached the next succeeding base).

11.2 FIELDER RIGHT OF WAY

The players, coaches, or any member of a team at bat must vacate any space or area (including both dugouts or bullpens) needed by a fielder who is attempting to field a batted or thrown ball. If a member of the team at bat (other than a runner) hinders a fielder's attempt to catch or field a batted ball, the ball is dead, the batter is declared out, and all runners return to the bases occupied at the time of the pitch. If a member of the team at bat (other than a runner) hinders a fielder's attempt to field a thrown ball, the ball is dead, the runner on whom the play is being made shall be declared out, and all runners return to the last legally occupied base at the time of the interference.

11.3 UNINTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE

In case of unintentional interference with play by any person authorized to be on the playing field (except members of the team at bat who are participating in the game or a base coach, any of whom interfere with a fielder attempting to field a batted or thrown ball or an Umpire) the ball is alive and in play. If the interference is intentional, the ball shall be dead at the moment of the interference, and the Umpire shall impose such penalties as, in his opinion, will nullify the act of interference.

The question of intentional or unintentional interference shall be decided based on the person's action. For example, a bat boy, ball attendant, policeman, etc., who tries to avoid being touched by a thrown or batted ball but still is touched by the ball would be considered unintentional interference. If, however, he picks up the ball, catches it, or touches the ball by intentionally pushing or kicking at the ball, this act would be considered intentional interference.

Play: The batter hits the ball to the third baseman, who fields the ball but throws it wild past the first baseman. The first base coach falls to the ground in trying to avoid being hit by the ball. The first baseman going to retrieve the ball runs into the coach. The batter-runner finally ends up on third base. Whether the umpire should call interference on the part of the coach is up to the judgment of the umpire, and if the umpire felt that the coach did all he could to avoid interfering with the play, no interference needed to be called. If, in the judgement of the Umpire, the coach was attempting to make it appear that he was trying not to interfere, the Umpire should rule interference.

11.4 SPECTATOR INTERFERENCE

When there is spectator interference with any thrown or batted ball, the ball shall be dead at the moment of interference, and the Umpire shall impose such penalties as, in his opinion, will nullify the act of interference.

Penalty: If spectator interference clearly prevents a fielder from catching a fly ball, the Umpire shall declare the batter out.

Comment: If a spectator reaches over, under, or through a barrier and touches a ball in play or interferes with a fielder trying to make a play. Batter and runners shall be placed where in the umpire's judgement would have been had the interference not occurred.

No interference will be called when a fielder reaches over a fence, railing or into the stands to catch a ball. He does so at his own risk. However, should a spectator reach out on the playing field side of the fence or railing and clearly prevent the fielder from catching the ball, then the batter will be called out for spectator interference.

Example: Runner on third base, one out, and a batter hit a fly ball deep to the outfield (fair or foul). The spectator clearly interferes with the outfielder attempting to catch the fly ball. The umpire calls the batter out for spectator interference. The ball is dead at the time of the call. The umpire decided that because of the distance the ball was hit, the runner on third base would have scored after the catch if the fielder had caught the ball, which was interfered with; therefore, the ball was a short distance from home plate.

11.5 UMPIRE OR COACH INTERFERENCE

Umpire interference occurs when a plate Umpire hinders, impedes or prevents a catcher's throw attempting to prevent a stolen base or retire a runner on a pick-off play.

Note: The ball is dead. Runners may not advance.

Another is when a fair ball touches an Umpire on fair territory before passing a fielder.

Note: The ball is dead. The batter-runner is awarded first; all other runners advance if they are forced.

Umpire interference may also occur when an Umpire interferes with a catcher returning the ball to the pitcher.

Note: The ball is dead. Runners may not advance.

If a coach intentionally interferes with a thrown ball, the runner is out. Any other runners must return to the last base touched.

If a thrown ball or pitched ball strikes an Umpire, the ball is in play, and the base runner or runners are entitled to advance at their own risk.

If a thrown ball hits a base coach in foul territory, the ball is in play.

11.6 INTERFERENCE WITH SQUEEZE PLAY OR STEAL OF HOME

If the catcher interferes on a squeeze play or a steal of home, that is if the catcher does not have possession of the ball or touches the batter or his bat, the pitcher shall be charged with a balk, the batter shall be awarded first base on the interference and the ball is dead.

11.7 OBSTRUCTION

Obstruction is the act of a fielder who, while not in possession of the ball and not in the act of fielding the ball, impedes the progress of any runner. If a fielder is about to receive a thrown ball and if the ball is in flight directly toward and near enough to the fielder, so he must occupy his position to receive the ball, he may be considered “in the act of fielding the ball.” It is entirely up to the judgement of the Umpire as to whether a fielder is in the act of fielding a ball.

After a fielder has made an attempt to field the ball and missed, he can no longer be in the “act of fielding” the ball. For example, an infielder dives at a ground ball, and the ball passes him, and he continues to lie on the ground and delays or impedes the progress of the runner; he very likely has obstructed the runner.

There are two types of obstruction. These types are commonly referred to as Type A Obstruction and Type B Obstruction.

TYPE A OBSTRUCTION

Type A Obstruction occurs when the defence is making a play on the runner who was obstructed or when the batter-runner is obstructed before first base.

That is the rule definition of obstruction. However, to better understand the rule, we have to know what is meant by “not in possession of the ball” and “in the act of fielding the ball.”

What is the definition of “in the act of fielding the ball”? The Umpire must know what a legal attempt at fielding the ball is. The definition is a legitimate effort by a fielder to retire a runner. What is a legitimate effort? Reasonable and ordinary effort. For example, if a fielder mishandles a ground ball but it is within a step and a reach, then he is considered to be making a play.

Some common examples of Type A Obstruction are:

11.7.1 The batter-runner is obstructed before reaching first base on a ground ball to an infielder.

11.7.2 A runner is obstructed while in a rundown.

11.7.3 A runner is obstructed as a fielder is throwing to a base to retire that runner (including a pickoff attempt or a stolen base attempt).

When Type A obstruction occurs, the Umpire shall call or signal “OBSTRUCTION.”

If a play is being made on the obstructed runner, or if the batter-runner is obstructed before he touches first base, the ball is dead, and all runners shall advance, without liability to be put out, to the bases they would have reached, in the Umpire’s judgement, if there had been no obstruction. The obstructed runner shall be awarded at least one base beyond the base he had last legally touched before the obstruction.

Any preceding runners forced to advance by the award of bases as the penalty for obstruction shall advance without liability to be put out.

Exception: If the batter-runner is obstructed before first base (a form of Type A Obstruction) after he has hit a fly ball, and that fly ball is legally caught by a fielder, the play shall proceed with no reference to the obstruction. In this situation, the obstruction on the batter-runner has no impact on the batter-runner’s ability to advance on the bases because the batted ball was caught.

Comment: When a play is being made on an obstructed runner, the Umpire shall signal obstruction in the same manner that he calls “Time,” with both hands overhead. The ball is immediately dead when this signal is given. However, should a thrown ball be in flight before the obstruction is called by the Umpire, the runners are to be awarded such bases on wild throws as they would have been awarded had no obstruction occurred. On a play where the runner was trapped between second and third and obstructed by the third baseman going into third while the throw is in flight from the shortstop, if such throw goes into the dugout, the obstructed runner is to be awarded home base. Any other runners on base in this situation would also be awarded two bases from the base they last legally touched before obstruction was called.

TYPE B OBSTRUCTION

Type B Obstruction is when the runner is obstructed while NO PLAY is being made on that runner.

Some common examples of Type B Obstruction are:

11.7.4 The batter-runner is obstructed (usually by the first baseman, but it could be another fielder) after rounding first base on a hit to the outfield.

11.7.5 A runner is held or pushed by a fielder after a missed or wild throw gets past that fielder.

11.7.6 A runner is forced to change course or direction because a fielder (while not in possession of the ball or in the act of making a play) is standing in his way.

11.7.6 The batter-runner is obstructed before first base on a base hit to the outfield.

When Type B obstruction occurs, the Umpire should point at the offence and vocalize, “That’s Obstruction.” The play shall proceed until no further action is possible. If a subsequent play is made on a previously obstructed runner and that runner is tagged out before he has reached the base that he would have reached had the obstruction not occurred, the Umpire shall call “Time” at the moment that the obstructed runner is tagged out. The Umpire will impose any penalties that will nullify the obstruction, awarding the obstructed runner the base that he would have reached had the obstruction not occurred. The Umpire may consider many factors in determining where to place an obstructed runner. The position of the ball when the obstruction occurred, the position of the runner when the obstruction occurred, the speed of the runner at the time of the obstruction and after the obstruction occurred. Also, if the base coach is holding the runner. The umpiring crew may consult with one another to reasonably determine where the runners should be placed in order to nullify the obstruction.

Comment: When the ball is not dead on obstruction and an obstructed runner advances beyond the base, which, in the Umpire’s judgement, he would have been awarded because of being obstructed, he does so at his own peril and may be tagged out. This is a judgement call.

Note: The catcher, without the ball in his possession, has no right to block the pathway of the runner attempting to score. The baseline belongs to the runner, and the catcher should be there only when he is fielding a ball or when he already has the ball in his possession.

11.8 COLLISION RULE

The KCBA/MLBL is concerned about unnecessary and violent collisions, primarily with the catcher at home plate and with infielders at all bases. This rule intends to encourage base runners and defensive players to avoid such collisions whenever possible.

11.8.1 When there is a collision between a runner and a fielder who is in possession of the ball, the Umpire shall judge:

11.8.1.1 Whether the collision by the runner was avoidable (could the runner have reached the plate without colliding) or unavoidable (the runner's path to the plate was blocked).

11.8.1.2 Whether the runner was attempting to reach the plate or dislodge the ball from the fielder. The Umpire shall judge contact above the waist as an attempt to dislodge the ball from the fielder.

11.8.1.3 Whether the runner was using flagrant contact to dislodge the ball maliciously.

Penalty: If the runner attempts to dislodge the ball, the runner shall be declared out even if the fielder loses possession. The ball is dead, and all other base runners shall return to the last base touched during the interference.

If the fielder blocks the path of the base runner to the plate, the runner may make contact, slide into, or collide with a fielder as long as the runner is making a legitimate attempt to reach the plate.

If the flagrant or malicious contact by the runner was before the runner's touching the plate, the runner should be declared out and ejected from the game. The ball is dead immediately. All other base runners shall return to the base they occupied at the time of the interference.

11.8.1.4 If the contact was after a preceding runner had touched home plate, the preceding runner would be ruled safe, the ball would die immediately, and all other base runners would return to the base they had last touched prior to the contact.

11.8.1.5 If the runner is safe and the collision is malicious, the runner shall be ruled safe and ejected from the game.

11.8.2 obstruction shall be called if the defensive player blocks the plate or baseline clearly without possession of the ball. The Umpire shall point and call, "That's Obstruction." The Umpire shall let the play continue until all play has ceased, call time, and award any justified bases per KCBA/MLBL Official Rules of Baseball. The obstructed runner is awarded at least one base beyond the base last touched legally before the obstruction.

11.8.2.1 If the base runner collides flagrantly, the runner shall be declared safe on the obstruction but will be ejected from the game. The ball is dead.

11.8.2.2 If the runner's path to the base is blocked and all stipulations above are fulfilled, it is considered unavoidable contact.

RULE 12. PITCHING

12.1 PITCHING POSITIONS

There are two legal pitching positions: the wind-up and the set position. Either one can be used at any time.

12.2 LEGAL PITCHING POSITIONS

Pitchers must take signs from the catcher while in contact with the pitcher's plate.

Comment: Pitchers may disengage the rubber after taking their signs but may not step quickly onto the rubber and pitch. This may be judged a quick pitch by the Umpire. The pitcher must drop his hands to his sides when disengaging the rubber.

Pitchers will not be allowed to disengage the rubber after taking each sign. The pitcher cannot take a second step toward home plate with either foot or reset his pivot foot in his pitch delivery. If there is a runner or runners on base, it is a balk. If the bases are unoccupied, it should be treated as an illegal pitch.

12.3 WINDUP POSITION – SET POSITION

12.3.1 WINDUP POSITION

The pitcher shall stand facing the batter, his pivot foot in contact with the pitcher's plate and the other foot free. He shall not raise either foot from the ground, except that in his actual delivery of the ball to the batter, he may take one step backward and one step forward with his free foot. From this position, any natural movement associated with the delivery of the ball to the batter commits him to the pitch without interruption or alteration.

When a pitcher holds the ball with both hands in front of his body, with his pivot foot in contact with the pitcher's plate and his other foot free, he will be considered in the Windup Position.

Comment: In the Windup Position, a pitcher is permitted to have his "free" foot on the rubber, in front of the rubber, behind the rubber or off the side of the rubber. From the Windup Position, the pitcher may:

- deliver the ball to the batter, or
- step and throw to a base in an attempt to pick off a runner or
- disengage the rubber (if he does, he must drop his hand to his sides).

In disengaging the rubber, the pitcher must step off with his pivot foot first, not his free foot. He may not go into a set or stretch position—if he does, it is a balk.

12.3.2 THE SET POSITION

Set Position shall be indicated by the pitcher when he stands facing the batter with the pivot foot in contact with, and the other foot in front of, the pitcher's plate, holding the ball in both hands in front of his body and coming to a complete stop. From such a Set Position, he may:

- a) deliver the ball to the batter
- b) throw to a base or step backward off the pitcher's plate with his pivot foot.

Before assuming a Set Position, the pitcher may elect to make any natural preliminary motion, such as "the stretch." But if he so elects, he shall come to Set Position before delivering the ball to the batter. After assuming Set Position, any natural motion associated with his ball delivery to the batter commits him to the pitch without alteration or interruption.

Before coming to a set position, the pitcher shall have one hand on his side; from this position, he shall go to his set position as defined in Rule 13.3.2 (b) without interruption and in one continuous motion.

Following his stretch, the pitcher must (a) hold the ball in both hands in front of his body and (b) come to a complete stop. This must be enforced. Umpires should watch this closely. If the pitcher fails to make a complete "stop" as called for in the rules, the Umpire should immediately contact a "Balk."

Comment: With no runners on base, the pitcher is not required to come to a complete stop when using the Set Position. If, however, in the Umpire's judgment, a pitcher delivers the ball deliberately to catch the batter off guard, this delivery shall be deemed a quick pitch, in which the penalty is a ball. With a runner or runners on base, a pitcher will be presumed to be pitching from the Set Position if he stands with his pivot foot parallel and in contact with the pitcher's plate and his other foot in front of the pitcher's plate unless he notifies the Umpire that he will be pitching from the Windup Position under such circumstances before the beginning of an at-bat. A pitcher will be permitted to inform the Umpire that he is pitching from the Windup Position within an at-bat only in the event of (i) a substitution by the offensive team or (ii) immediately upon the advancement of one or more runners (i.e., after one or more base runners advance but before the delivery of the next pitch).

12.4 WARM-UP PITCHES

The pitcher is allowed to warm up at the beginning of each inning. He can throw as many as eight warm-up pitches, provided they are within the allotted time allowed between innings. The catcher will be instructed to throw the ball to second base with thirty seconds left on the clock.

Penalty: The pitcher will be warned for the first offence. Any subsequent violation will be penalized, and a ball will be awarded to the batter.

A relief pitcher entering the game must complete and may not exceed eight warm-up pitches within the time. The catcher will be instructed no more throws with fifteen seconds left on the clock.

Penalty: They will be warned for the first offence by that pitcher. Any subsequent violation by the same team will be penalized, and a ball will be awarded to the next batter of the inning.

12.5 PITCH CLOCK

The implementation of game management clocks supports the efforts to maintain a reasonable pace of the game, helping to create a better experience for fans in the stadium and viewers around the globe.

12.5.1 The pitch clock will be set at twenty seconds.

12.5.2 Pitch clocks will be visible from the field of play and dugouts.

12.5.3 The pitch clock will be in effect ONLY, with NO runners on base for the entire game, including any extra innings.

12.5.4 It will be activated when the pitcher receives the ball in the mound area.

12.5.5 Once the 20-second clock has started, the batter has 10 seconds to enter the batter's box.

12.5.6 The batter must keep one foot in the batter's box between pitches. Failure to keep one foot in the batter's box shall result in a strike being called on the batter. The batter may only step out of the batter's box with both feet in the following circumstances:

12.5.6.1 When the ball is hit.

12.5.6.2 On a swing, provided the momentum of the swing takes them out of the batter's box.

12.5.6.3 If forced out of the batter's box to a valid pitch.

12.5.6.4 On a wild pitch.

12.5.6.5 On an attempted play at the plate or by the catcher on an advancing runner or by any player.

12.5.6.6 If the catcher is attempting to make a play (i.e. pop fly).

12.5.6.7 If time has been called, or the plate Umpire leaves his position to perform other duties not directly connected with the calling of plays.

12.5.6.8 If the pitcher leaves the mound.

12.5.6.9 On a three-ball count, the batter thinks the pitch is a ball.

12.5.6.10 On a check swing.

12.5.6.11 On a bunt attempt.

12.5.7 When the Umpire indicates "PLAY BALL" after the batter leaves the batter's box as a result of one of the exceptions listed above, the Umpire shall do so once all play has ceased and the batter is in or near the batter's box, the pitcher has possession of the ball on the mound, or the catcher is in a position to return the ball to the pitcher. The Umpire shall signal for the clock to begin. This includes a foul ball, a dead ball or "TIME" being called, even if the batter does not leave the batter's box.

12.5.8 A pitcher stepping off the rubber will not stop the clock unless the
The umpire grants the pitcher time.

12.5.9 If the pitcher or batter is granted time by the Umpire with five or more seconds showing on the clock, the player in question will not get a reset of the total 20 seconds. The clock will be restarted when the Home Plate Umpire signals "PLAY BALL."

12.6 PITCHING VIOLATIONS (PROHIBITIONS)

The pitcher shall not:

12.6.1 Make an illegal pitch or quick pitch with no one on base.

Penalty: Call a Ball unless the batter reaches first base.

12.6.2 Intentionally or unintentionally drop the ball while in contact with the pitcher's plate (rubber).

Penalty: With no one on base, if the ball drops or slips out of the pitcher's hand, intentionally or accidentally, it is a no pitch if the ball does NOT cross the foul line. If it does cross the foul line, it is a ball. If a runner or runner is on base and the ball is dropped, it is a balk.

12.6.3 Delay the game at any time. The pitcher has 20 seconds with no runners on base.

Penalty: After a warning for each pitcher, a ball will be called each time the rule is violated.

12.6.4 Go to the mouth while in contact with the pitcher's plate or in the 18-foot (5.49 m) circle surrounding the pitcher's plate. The pitcher must wipe the fingers of his pitching hand dry before touching the ball or the pitcher's plate.

Exception: In cold weather, the Umpire may announce to both teams that it is allowed for the pitcher to blow on his hand, on or off the rubber.

Penalty: The umpire will remove the ball from play and warn the pitcher. Any subsequent violation shall be called a ball.

12.6.5 Rub the ball on his glove, person, or clothing. Expectorate on the ball, either hand or glove. Apply any foreign substance of any kind to the ball. Deface the ball in any manner. Have any foreign substance on his person or in his possession.

Penalty: Eject the pitcher from the game. If, in the judgment of the Umpire, the pitcher did not intend to alter the characteristics of the baseball, then the Umpire MAY, at the Umpire's discretion, warn the pitcher instead of ejecting him from the game. If the pitcher violates this rule, the Umpire shall eject the pitcher from the game.

12.6.6 Intentionally delay the game by throwing the ball to players other than the catcher when the batter is in the batter's box and is ready to hit, except in an attempt to retire a runner.

12.6.7 Intentionally throw at the batter. If, in the Umpire's judgment, it was intentional, the Umpire may:

12.6.7.1 Eject the pitcher or the pitcher and manager from the game.

12.6.7.2 May warn the pitcher and the manager of both teams that another such pitch will result in the immediate ejection of that pitcher or a replacement pitcher and the manager.

If, in the Umpire's judgment, both teams may be officially warned before the game or at any time during the game.

Comment: No one, manager, coach or team personnel may come on the playing field to argue a warning issued by the Umpires. To throw at a batter's head is unsportsmanlike and dangerous. Everyone condemns it. Umpires should act without hesitation in enforcing this rule.

12.6.8 Pitch right-handed and left-handed to the same batter during a plate appearance. (See Rule 13.9 Ambidextrous Pitcher).

12.6.9 Take the signs from the catcher with the pivot foot not touching the pitcher's plate. If a pitcher changes pitching hands during a batter's time at bat, the Umpire will:

12.6.9.1 Call a balk if a runner(s) is on base.

12.6.9.2 Call a ball for an illegal pitch if no runner is on base.

12.6.9.3 Warn the pitcher.

12.6.9.4 Eject the pitcher if the violation is repeated.

Note: If a pinch hitter replaces a batter during an at-bat, the pitcher may change pitching hands.

If the batter is a switch hitter, an ambidextrous pitcher must declare which hand he will pitch to the batter.

12.6.10 A pitcher is not allowed to jump or push forward off the pitcher's plate with his pivot foot and then bring his foot to the ground and make a second push-off before delivering the pitch.

Penalty: This is an illegal pitch and shall be called a balk with runners on base.

Note: A pitcher is not in violation if he pushes off the pitcher's plate with the pivot foot and maintains contact with the ground with the pivot foot without a second push-off from the ground.

12.7 THROWING TO THE BASES

At any time during the pitcher's preliminary movements and until his natural pitching motion commits him to pitch, he may throw to any base, provided he steps directly to such base before making the throw.

Comment: The pitcher must step ahead of the throw. A BALK is a snap throw followed by a step directly toward the base.

12.8 EFFECT OF REMOVING PIVOT FOOT FROM PLATE

If the pitcher removes his pivot foot from contact with the pitcher's plate by stepping backward with that foot, he thereby becomes an infielder. If he makes a wild throw from that position, it shall be considered the same as a wild throw by any other infielder.

12.9 AMBIDEXTROUS PITCHERS

A pitcher must visually indicate to the plate umpire, batter, and any runner the hand with which he intends to pitch, which may be done by wearing his glove on the other hand while touching the pitcher's plate. The pitcher is not permitted to pitch with the other hand until the batter is retired, becomes a runner, the inning ends, the batter is substituted for by a pinch-hitter, or the pitcher incurs an injury. If a pitcher switches pitching hands during an at-bat because he has suffered an injury, the pitcher may not, for the remainder of the game, pitch with the hand from which he has switched. The pitcher shall not be allowed to throw any preparatory pitches after switching pitching hands. Any change of pitching hands must be indicated clearly to the plate Umpire.

12.10 BALKS

A balk is an illegal act by the pitcher with a runner(s) on base. All runners advance one base. Exception: if after the balk, the batter reaches base due to a hit, error, base on balls, hit batter or otherwise, and all runners advance at least one base, the play stands, and the balk is ignored.

If there is a runner or runners, a balk shall be called for the following action by a pitcher:

12.10.1 While touching the pitcher's plate, any feinting motion without completing the throw toward the batter or toward first or third base.

12.10.2 When, before throwing to any base from a pitching position, the pitcher feints a throw to a base and, without breaking contact with the rubber, throws to another base.

12.10.3 While in a pitching position, throw to any base to retire a runner without first stepping directly toward such base, or throw or feint a throw toward any base when it is not an attempt to retire a runner or prevent the runner from advancing.

12.10.4 The pitcher must step toward the base while touching the pitcher's rubber, preceding or simultaneous with any move toward that base. Upon raising the lead leg, the pitcher is committed to throwing to the base facing second base or to the plate. When throwing or feinting a throw to a base not being faced, the pitcher must step immediately, directly and gain ground toward that base.

Note: If the pitcher throws to the first or third baseman who is playing off the base, a balk shall not be called if the fielder moves toward the occupied base to retire the runner.

12.10.5 The "spin" or "open" move to second base is legal if the pitcher raises the lead leg and immediately, with a continuous motion, steps directly toward second base. The pitcher need not throw.

12.10.6 The pitcher shall step "ahead of the throw." A snap throw followed by a step toward the base is a balk.

12.10.7 The pitcher may not prematurely flex either leg before stepping directly and throwing to first base.

12.10.8 The jump-turn move is legal if the pitcher's free footsteps toward and gains ground to the base where the ball is being thrown. Otherwise, a balk shall be called.

12.10.9 Stepping toward second base without completing the throw is legal if a runner occupies the base or there is an attempt to retire a runner.

12.10.10 Making an illegal pitch, such as a quick pitch.

Note: If a runner on third base breaks for home plate, the pitcher may speed up the delivery but must continue to use a typical pitching sequence and arm action.

12.10.11 Unnecessarily delaying the game.

12.10.12 While not in possession of the ball, the pitcher stands with either foot or both feet on any part of the dirt area (circle) of the mound during a hidden-ball play attempt.

12.10.13 Failing to throw to the batter immediately after making any motion with any body part, such as the pitcher habitually uses in the delivery.

Note: If the pitcher, with a runner on base, stops or hesitates the delivery because the batter steps out of the box, holds up a hand or uses any other action as if calling time, it shall not be a balk. The rule has been violated by both the batter and the pitcher, and the Umpire shall call "Time" and begin the play anew.

12.10.14 The pitcher takes either hand off the ball after taking a stretch or set position unless making a pitch or throwing to any base.

Note: The pitcher may momentarily adjust the ball in the glove and separate the hands if it is before assuming a legal pitching position.

12.10.15 The pitcher pitches while the catcher is not in the catcher's box. The catcher must have at least one foot within the catcher's box until the pitcher begins the pitching motion. Note: This is an illegal pitch with no runners on base.

12.10.16 The pitcher delivers the pitch from the set position without coming to a complete and discernible stop, or the pitcher comes to more than one stop from the set position (see Article 13.3.2 Comment); Note: With the bases unoccupied, the pitcher does not need to come to a complete and discernible stop.

12.10.17 From the set position, if the entire free foot or any part of the stride leg breaks the plane of the back edge of the pitcher's rubber, the pitcher does not throw or feint a motion to second base or pitch to home plate.

12.10.18 When the pitcher makes a natural pitching motion while not touching the pitcher's rubber.

Note:

- a. If the balk is immediately followed by a pitch that permits the batter and each runner to advance at least one base, the balk is ignored, and the ball remains live. Example: The batter and all runner(s) advance when a wild pitch is either ball four or strike three.
- b. If a balk is immediately followed by a wild throw by the pitcher to a base that permits a runner(s) to advance to or beyond the base to which that runner is entitled. The Umpire will call the balk in the usual manner but shall not call "Time" until all play has ceased (runners have stopped trying to advance, and a fielder has the ball in the infield).

Note: After a balk that is followed by a base hit or a wild throw to a base or the plate, a runner who misses the first base to which the runner is advancing and who, before the next pitch, is called out on appeal, shall be contemplated as having advanced one base for the purpose of this rule.

- c. If only the runner advances to or beyond the base to which he is entitled because of a wild pitch after a balk, the balk is still acknowledged.

Note: A runner(s) may advance beyond the base that is entitled at the runner's own risk. When a balk occurs, the pitch is nullified, and the batter will resume the at-bat with the count that existed unless:

- d. The wild pitch was ball four, on which all runners (including the batter-runner) advanced one base.
- e. The wild pitch was strike three, on which the batter and all other runners advanced one base. In both situations (a) and (b) above, play proceeds without reference to the balk because all runners (including the batter-runner) advanced one base on the pitch after the balk.

Note: If the balk is followed by a wild pitch that allows a runner to attempt to go beyond the base that he would have been awarded because of the balk, the runner advances at his own risk; he is either safe or out due to the play. The balk is still "acknowledged" as it relates to the batter, and he will resume the at-bat with the count that existed when the balk occurred.

12.11 REMOVING PITCHER

The conditions for removal of the pitcher are as follows:

12.11.1 A manager is allowed to be involved in a maximum of 3 free trips plus one extra free trip for every three innings in the event of an extra-inning game.

A free trip is a defensive-charged conference involving a manager, coach, or bench personnel in which the pitcher is not removed.

12.11.2 The manager cannot circumvent this rule by asking a player to act for him, and neither can the manager or his representative leave the bench or dugout and approach the baselines to confer with the pitcher for the purpose of evading this rule.

12.11.3 If a manager holds a defensive conference with a defensive player, it shall be considered a charged defensive conference whether the player goes to the mound or not.

12.11.4 Unused free trips to the mound during the first nine innings in a nine-inning game, or seven in a seven-inning game, may not be used during any extra innings.

12.11.5 For the purpose of identifying trips to the mound on a batter, a player becomes the batter as soon as the previous batter reaches base or is put out. The new batter does not have to enter the batter's box to be considered the batter.

12.11.6 In a situation where a player is bleeding, a decision to substitute for the player must be made within 10 minutes from the time play is stopped. A substitute player must begin warming up immediately when the blood rule is in effect.

12.11.7 During a free trip or a time out to allow a substitution for the pitcher, a defensive player may warm up another defensive player, provided it does not delay the game.

The player warming up must be in the current line-up and remain in fair territory during the charged conference or timeout. For example, a bullpen catcher is not allowed to participate in this type of warm-up.

12.11.8 The plate Umpire shall record on the line-up card each free trip and the inning in which it occurred.

12.11.9 If a manager, coach or his nonplaying representative goes to the mound a second time in the inning to talk to the same pitcher, or if a manager, coach or non-playing representative has already been involved in 3 of the defensive charged conferences during regulation play, the pitcher must be removed from the pitcher's position for the remainder of the game. The coach will indicate the relief pitcher to an Umpire immediately after crossing the foul line.

Note: If, after one trip to the same pitcher in the same inning or three free trips in a game, the coach goes to the plate Umpire to announce a pitching change (does not go to the mound), a second trip shall be charged (when the change is recorded on the official line-up card). If moved to a defensive position, the pitcher shall not return to pitch.

12.11.10 A manager may not make a second trip to the mound in the same inning with the same batter at bat. However, if a pinch hitter is substituted, the manager may make a second trip but must remove the pitcher.

12.11.10.1 In this pinch-hitter situation, a relief pitcher, having just been brought into pitch, may not be removed from the game before pitching completely to one batter, or the side has been retired.

12.11.10.2 If the manager previously has used the allowed free trips and mistakenly is allowed to go to the mound for a conference, the pitcher shall be removed from the position after the batter completes the turn at bat. The pitcher may not re-enter the game as a pitcher.

12.11.10.3 If the manager starts to the mound for a second trip with the same batter at bat in the same inning, the Umpire shall warn that this act is not permitted. If the manager continues to the mound, the manager shall be ejected, and the pitcher must complete pitching to the batter; when the batter's turn is completed, the pitcher shall be removed from the game. The manager should be warned of the impending removal so that another pitcher can start warming up. The substitute pitcher shall be permitted to make eight preparatory pitches unless circumstances justify additional pitches.

Note: The manager shall not be penalized if the Umpire fails to recognize that the manager is making a second trip during the same batter.

12.11.10.4 The trip to the mound (which may include a conference with the infielders) begins when the manager crosses the foul line and shall be concluded when the manager leaves the dirt circle or the pitcher starts his eight warm-up pitches.

12.11.10.5 A pitcher removed from the pitching position but remains in the game as a defensive player may return to the mound only once.

12.11.10.6 When the game pitcher crosses the foul line on the way to the mound to start an inning, he shall pitch to the first batter until such batter is put out or reaches base unless a pinch hitter is substituted or the batter or the pitcher sustains an injury or illness, which incapacitates him from continuing.

A manager or coach is deemed to have concluded his visit to the mound when he leaves the 18-foot (5.49 m) circle surrounding the pitcher's rubber.

Comment: If the manager or coach goes to the catcher or infielder and that player then goes to the mound or the pitcher comes to him at his position before there is an intervening play (a pitch or other play), that will be treated the same as the manager, coach or bench personnel going to the mound. Any attempt to circumvent this rule by the manager or coach bench personnel by going to the catcher or any infielder and then that player going to the mound to talk with the pitcher will constitute a trip to the mound. If the coach goes to the mound and removes a pitcher, and then the manager goes to the mound to talk with the new pitcher, that will constitute one trip to that new pitcher that inning.

A manager or coach shall not be considered to have finished his visit to the mound if he temporarily left the 18-foot (5.49 m) circle surrounding the pitcher's rubber for purposes of notifying the Umpire that a double switch or substitution is being made. In a case where a manager has made his first trip to the mound and then returns the second time to the mound in the same inning with the same pitcher in a game and the same batter at bat; after being warned by the Umpire that he cannot return to the mound, the manager will be removed from the game, and the pitcher will be required to pitch to that batter until he is retired or gets on base.

After the batter is retired or becomes a runner, that pitcher must be removed from the game. The manager should be notified that his pitcher will be removed from the game after he pitches to one hitter so he can have a substitute pitcher warmed up. In such an occurrence, the substitute pitcher will be allowed as much time to warm up as the Umpire deems necessary.

For this rule, replacing the pitcher will be considered one trip to that pitcher that inning, regardless of whether the manager or coach chooses to go to the mound or whether the pitcher remains in the game at a different position on defence.

APPENDIX 01.

BASEBALL RULES

B1. GENERAL GUIDELINES

- B1.1 Each team manager will have one (1) challenge per seven (7) innings of play.
- B1.2 Managers may only challenge calls included in the “Reviewable Calls for Managers Challenge” list.
- B1.3 If the challenged call is overturned, the manager will maintain the challenge. If the call is upheld, the manager will lose the challenge.
- B1.4 If the game goes into extra innings, each Team will have one (1) challenge.
- B1.5 Beginning in the top of the 5th inning, the Crew Chief can choose to review any reviewable calls if the manager is out of challenges.

B2. REVIEWABLE CALLS FOR MANAGERS CHALLENGE

- B2.1 BASE RUNNING
 - Runner passing the runner in front of them.
 - Time plays.
 - Runner missing a base while advancing. The defence must appeal before review.
 - Runner(s) leaving early during a tag-up play.
 - Runner(s) failing to retouch a base when required.
- B2.2 CATCH/NO CATCH PLAY
 - Any play attempted by one of the outfielders.
 - Any play attempted by an infielder if they are forced to go back into the outfield to make the play
 - Any fly ball in foul territory is reviewable.
 - Play in the infield is NOT reviewable.

Note: The infield limit is at the Umpire’s discretion.
- B2.3 FAIR/FOUL
 - Ball must land at or beyond the set position of the 1st/3rd base Umpire.
 - A foul ball landing in front of the Umpire IS NOT reviewable. Exception: Ball swung at or bunted, called fair landing in front of Umpire is reviewable to see if the ball hit the batter. The call could be overturned to an out or foul ball. Runners would not be in jeopardy.
- B2.4 FORCE PLAYS
 - Any force play at any base is reviewable.
- B2.5 HIT BY PITCH
 - Any hit by pitch is reviewable.
 - If the hit-by pitch occurs on a check swing, the check swing must be appealed before asking for a review.
- B2.6 POTENTIAL HOME RUN
 - Any potential or Home Run call may be challenged.

Note: The manager may ask the Crew Chief for a review without counting it as a challenge. If there is any doubt, the umpire crew should check on potential Home Runs. If the Crew Chief does not concede the review, the manager may challenge.
- B2.7 COLLISION RULE
 - Any collision at any base is reviewable.
 - Safe/out calls will be reviewed while judging potential violations.

Note: If multiple plays occur, the manager must state which ones are being challenged.

B2.8 NON-HOME RUN BOUNDARY

- Any ball/fielder entering dead ball territory.
- Spectator interference with a play (all types).
- Specific tournament ground rules (i.e. ball striking catwalk at a dome).

Note: If a ball hits the catwalk and falls in the infield, not reviewable. Only reviewable if it falls in the outfield.

- Balls lodged during a play (i.e. ball stuck in temporary fence).

Note: balls stuck are reviewable even if a player goes after it and tries to retrieve it.

- Placement of runners after a non-home Run boundary call. The Call prompting for the challenge will also be reviewed.

B2.9 SLIDE RULE

- When a runner hindered/impeded the fielder and engaged in a bona fide slide on a double play attempt:
 - a. If both calls favour the offence (safe/safe), the defence may challenge.
 - b. If both calls favour the defence (out/out), the offence may be challenged.
 - c. Both teams may challenge if one call favours the offence and one favours the defence (out/safe, safe/out).
Exception: if out call is 3rd out.

Note: The Infielder must make an attempt to throw to be reviewable. The on-field crew will determine a double play attempt on a non-throw. If challenging both calls, the manager must state it at once or pick which one he is challenging.

The original calls on the field will dictate whether a play requires one or two trips to review. A team adversely affected by a review can still be challenged, provided the change of the initial call made a previous call relevant, and the manager had no incentive to seek a review initially. This request for a manager's challenge or Crew Chief Review must be made immediately after the announcement of the Official Review and the decision.

B2.10 TAG PLAYS

- A runner potentially being pushed off is NOT reviewable.

B3. REVIEWABLE CALLS BY Both Umpires (Plate/Line)

Any reviewable calls upon the start of the 5th inning.

- Potential Home Runs.
- Record-keeping situations such:
 - a. Counts.
 - b. Outs.
 - c. Score.
- Proper/Improper line-up.
- Substitutions.
- Rules review if potential protest by manager.
- To ask/clarify if a call is reviewable.
- Ground rules review.

APPENDIX 02.

PITCH CLOCKS REGULATION

B4. PITCH CLOCK

- The pitch clock will be set at twenty (20) seconds.
- Pitch clocks will be visible from the field of play and dugouts if possible. If not, the scorekeeper counts the clock and announces if there is a delay.
- The pitch clock will be in effect ONLY with NO runners on base for the entire game, including any extra innings.
- It will be activated when the pitcher receives the ball on the mound area.
- Once the 20-second clock has started, the batter has 10 seconds to enter the batter's box.
- The batter must keep one foot in the batter's box between pitches. Failure to keep one foot in the batter's box shall result in a strike being called on the batter.
- The batter may only step out of the batter's box with both feet in the following circumstances:
 - a) When the ball is hit.
 - b) On a swing, provided the momentum of the swing takes them out of the batter's box.
 - c) If forced out of the batter's box to a valid pitch.
 - d) If the catcher attempts to make a play (i.e. pop fly).
 - e) If time has been called, or the plate Umpire leaves their position to perform other duties not directly connected with the calling of plays.
 - f) If the pitcher leaves the mound.
 - g) On a three-ball count the batter thinks the pitch was a ball.
 - h) On a check swing.
 - i) On a bunt attempt.

When the Umpire indicates "Play Ball", after the batter leaves the batter's box as a result of one of the exceptions listed above, the Umpire shall do so once all play has ceased and the batter is in or near the batter's box, the pitcher has possession of the ball on the mound, or the catcher is in a position to return the ball to the pitcher. The Umpire shall signal for the clock to begin. This includes a foul ball, a dead ball or "TIME" being called, even if the batter does not leave the batter's box.

- A pitcher stepping off the rubber will not stop the clock unless the Umpire grants the pitcher time.
 - If the pitcher or batter is granted time by the Umpire with five or more seconds showing on the clock, the player in question will not get a reset of the total 20 seconds. The clock will be restarted when the Home Plate Umpire signals PLAY BALL.
- Penalty: The first time a pitcher violates the 20-second clock, he shall be warned by the Umpire. Any subsequent violations by the same pitcher will be penalised, and a ball will be awarded to the batter. There will be one warning per pitcher.
- If the batter is not in the batter's box ready to take the pitch with five seconds or less showing on the clock and time expires, the Umpire shall warn both the batter and the team manager. Any subsequent violations by any batter will be penalised, and a strike will be awarded to the pitcher. There will be one Team warning per game.
 - A delay of the game caused by the batter's failure to keep one foot in the batter's box between pitches will result in the ball being declared dead and a strike awarded against the batter. The Home Plate Umpire shall call and signal "DEAD BALL," point to the batter's box and say, "BATTER'S BOX VIOLATION," awarding a strike on the batter and giving the new count.

B5. PITCHING CHANGE CLOCK

- The pitching change clock will be set at ninety (90) seconds.
- Clock will be visible from the field of play and dugouts.
- The pitching change clock will be in effect ONLY when play is halted to make the substitution (i.e., following a pitching mound visit by coach/ manager).
- It will be activated when the pitcher from the bullpen steps onto the warning track.
- The pitcher may not exceed eight (8) warm-up pitches within the time.
- The catcher will be instructed no more throws with fifteen (15) seconds left on the clock.
- The batter must enter the batter's box as time expires or when instructed by the Home Plate Umpire.

Penalty: The first time the defence violates the pitching change clock, the team manager shall be warned by the Umpire. Any subsequent violations by the same Team will be penalised, and a ball will be awarded to the next batter of the inning. The Umpire will then activate the pitch clock for the following pitch.

- The first time the offence violates the pitching change clock, the Umpire shall warn the team manager. Any subsequent violations by the same Team will be penalised, and a strike will be awarded to the pitcher. The Umpire will then activate the pitch clock for the following pitch.

Note: Time allowance for pitching changes may be modified slightly if a game is televised live. In such cases, the Umpire Director/Crew Chief will inform Teams accordingly.
